MAP SHOWS ACTION POINTS

Cuban exiles in U.S. claimed today that invaders had landed in at least three spots on Cuba: 1. On south coast, at Bay of Cochina, at southern border of Matanzas Province; 2. At Cabanas, near western end of island; 3. Baracoa, on eastern tip of Cuba. (AP Wirephoto).

'We Won't Intervene'—Rusk

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today "there is no secret about the sympathy of the American people" for the forces seeking to overthrow Cuban premier Fidel Castro.

But he emphasized that "there is not and will not be any intervention" in Cuba by United States forces.

Rusk also said the United States is determined "to do all we possibly can to insure that Americans do not participate in these actions in Cuba."

Rusk said the landings were not mounted from U.S. soil. And he rejected Castro's charge that the United States was behind the invasion.

'NOT INDIFFERENT'

The secretary made it clear, however, that the United States is "not indifferent to intrusion into this hemisphere by the Communist conspiracy."

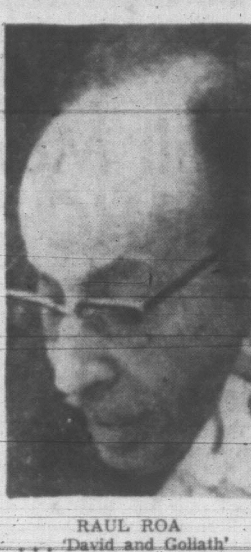

This conspiracy, he said, as recently as last December, "declared its intentions to destroy free institutions in all parts of the world."

He was referring to the manifesto issued in Moscow last December by representatives of Communist parties in more than 80 countries. The Communists called for increased action to spread their doctrine and control in Latin America, Africa and other areas.

Rusk would not predict what action the United States might take if Russia intervenes on Castro's side.

In a statement read at his news conference, Rusk said, in part:

RAUL ROA

'Launched in Florida' Roa Claims

UNITED NATIONS (CP)—Cuba charged today that the invasion of Cuba was launched from Florida and Guatemala with the backing of the United States. The United States replied with an immediate denial.

Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa told the UN political committee that the United States must assume the full responsibility for the dawn landings.

Chief U.S. delegate Adlai Stevenson asserted "these charges are totally false and I deny them categorically."

"The United States has not committed aggression against Cuba and no aggression has been launched from any part of the United States," he said.

He added, however, that the American people sympathize with "Cubans who do not stop being Cubans because they could not stand to live in Cuba" under the regime of Fidel Castro.

The Cuban foreign minister concluded his emotional denials.

Gain Beachhead Close to Havana

(Times News Services)

A strong force of rebel troops invaded Cuba today in an attempt to overthrow Premier Fidel Castro.

By parachute and landing craft, the assault force swarmed ashore only 90 miles from Havana and established a beachhead.

Reports indicated the invaders had advanced 25 miles inland. Castro proclaimed a state of national emergency. He took personal command of defence operations.

The invaders struck in the swampy area around Bahia de Cochinos (the bay of pigs) shortly after midnight.

Another force was reported to have landed in Oriente Province in eastern Cuba Saturday night.

5,000 MEN

Sources of the Cuban revolutionary council estimated 5,000 anti-Castro troops had gone into action within the last 48 hours.

President Jose Miro Cardona of the Cuban Revolutionary Council, with headquarters in the U.S., said the assault was the beginning of the battle "to liberate our homeland from the despotic rule of Fidel Castro and rid Cuba of international cruelty and oppression."

Miro Cardona's proclamation of revolt was broadcast to all Cubans by a revolutionary radio station on a Caribbean island.

The Castro regime immediately cut off communications to and from Cuba, and there was little information on the progress of the fighting.

HEAVY CASUALTIES

But one broadcast indicated the casualties were heavy. Castro himself underscored the gravity of the events in statements read over the country's biggest radio station after a 12-hour silence.

The bearded premier told the people of Cuba that invasion troops were attacking various points of national territory in the south of Las Villas province with the aid of aircraft and warships.

He called for action against "those who are surprised committing... sabotage, shooting or assassination attempts" indicating that an uprising within Cuba had accompanied the invasion.

'Aggression' Protested By Russia

By UP International

The Soviet Union demanded today that "aggression against free Cuba" must be stopped immediately, and charged that plans for the invading forces which landed in Cuba this morning were made in the United States.

The first official Soviet reaction came in an editorial and new dispatches in today's edition of the government newspaper Izvestia in Moscow.

"Halt the aggression against free Cuba," an Izvestia headline said.

"The Cuban people has risen to the defence of the fatherland; Cuba is not alone. All mankind is with her."

Communist China also declared that it is unable to contain its "extreme anger" over "United States aggression" against Cuba.

The official Chinese Communist newspaper People's Daily claimed that Saturday's bombing raids against Cuba were part of a "series of schemes engineered by the United States to intervene in Cuba."

DOUGLAS' STAND REVEALED HERE?

(Times Ottawa Bureau)

OTTAWA — Premier T. C. Douglas is expected to make a formal declaration of his intention to seek the leadership of the New Party when he speaks at a $10 a plate dinner meeting in the Esquimalt-Saanich constituency during the byelection campaign next month.

The dinner meeting is being arranged to be held in Victoria. During the meeting May 6 Premier Douglas will speak on behalf of New Party candidate Glen Hamilton in Esquimalt-Saanich riding. His announcement that he will be a candidate for the leadership of the New Party is expected to add a spark to the New Party campaign in that constituency.

JERUSALEM — Adolf Eichmann intoned the words "not guilty" 15 times today, denying all counts of Israel's indictment naming him as the master destroyer of 6,000,000 Jews.

Attorney-General Gideon Hausner, Eichmann's prosecutor, said the former Nazi officer "still believes he did what was right and proper in destroying millions."

The not-guilty pleas marked the actual start of Eichmann's trial on the charges of complicity in the death of 6,000,000 European Jews during the Second World War.

A few minutes earlier the three-man court headed by Justice Moshe Landau overruled defence contentions that the court is prejudiced and incompetent and that the law under which Eichmann is charged is unjust.

Then Justice Landau ordered Eichmann to stand up and remove the headphones over which he listens to the translation into German of the Hebrew language of the court.

Point by point, through the 15 counts of the indictment, Landau asked Eichmann: "Do you plead guilty or not guilty?"

Hausner began with a harsh, emotional outline of the case. He said Eichmann beat a Jewish child to death with his own hands for stealing peaches.

Pacific Power Grid Envisaged

A vast network of hydro power schemes stretching from Alaska to California was envisaged today by B.C.'s Lands and Forests Minister Ray Williston.

Addressing a Pacific Northwest Trade Association conference in Portland, Mr. Williston made a big pitch for export of Canadian power from both Columbia and Peace Rivers, as a vital part of his overall plan.

"There can be no logical reason for Canada to continue the artificial boundary barrier to the export of hydro energy," he said.

Mr. Williston's international grid would serve the Pacific Northwest and California.

The big need for more power will be after the mid-1970s, he said, but planning, engineering and construction

TOP COMIC STRIP

'Juliet Jones' in Today's Times

"The Heart of Juliet Jones," one of the most popular comic strips in North America, starts in the Times today.

Beautifully drawn by Stan Drake — who uses his wife as model for the central character — "Juliet Jones" tells a story of life, romance, and small-town political intrigues which has captivated millions of newspaper readers.

Eager to accept a foreign exchange student, Mayor Juliet volunteered to board a Greek girl, Vasily Papadopoulos. Vasily turned out to be a handsome young man. The Jones made him feel at home, successfully changed his style of dress... and now face a new problem. Vasily has been invited to a school dance and for him, dancing is just another North American mystery.

To see how he tries to conquer the problem, begin reading "The Heart of Juliet Jones" today on page 14.

Laos Cease-Fire 'Out' for Moment

(Times News Service)

LONDON — The Soviet Union rejected some details of the Western proposal for a cease-fire in Laos but kept the door open for further negotiations, a foreign office spokesman said today.

The spokesman declined to give the substance of the note, delivered Sunday in Moscow, but made clear that Britain and the Soviet Union won't be joining right away in calling for a cease-fire to suspend the fighting between the Western-backed Laotian government of Prince Boun Oum and the leftist Pathet Lao guerrillas.

The spokesman said further contacts with the Soviet government would be required and that meanwhile Britain is consulting with the United States, France and Commonwealth countries.

"Until we have completed discussions with our allies and come to some conclusions," the spokesman said, "we can give no indication as to our views on how the note is to be regarded."

Diplomatic sources in Moscow said that Russia's reply indicated a qualified acceptance of an immediate cease-fire appeal, but no agreement has yet been reached.

The sources said the Soviets still do not see eye-to-eye with the West on a timetable aimed at bringing a final Laotian settlement.

This is the closest the Pathet Lao forces are reported to have come to cutting the nation in two—a factor that could have significance when and if a cease-fire line is drawn.

The Pathet Lao attack came Sunday and broke a Laotian New Year holiday lull in the fighting that had lasted for a week.

'YOU ARE ONE HELL OF AN ICEBREAKER ...'

PORT ARTHUR (CP) — The icebreaker Alexander Henry worked today to free 11 ships trapped in an offshore icefield.

The vessels became trapped during the weekend in the approaches to the lakehead harbors when high winds pushed ice into the channels.

The Alexander Henry drew sharp criticism from ship captains Sunday after getting stuck herself in attempts to aid the others.

One ship's captain radioed to the $3,000,000 government icebreaker: "You are one hell of an icebreaker you are. Can't even get yourself out of the ice."

His direct appeal to the minister is being made because the courts have refused to revoke the deportation ordered against Chan.

The young businessman has admitted leaving Hong Kong with an illegally-acquired British passport. He came to Canada 23 months ago, ostensibly on a visit.

REBELS CAPTURE ISLAND SAY CUBANS IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The Mexico City agency of the Cuban revolutionary council said today anti-Castro rebels have taken the Isle of Pines and freed 10,000 political prisoners, who joined the rebellion. The agency said its information came in radio broadcasts from the Isle of Pines.

The agency also said it had learned that Lazaro Cardenas, former president of Mexico, was trying to arrange asylum here for Fidel Castro.

rebel army, and the national militia are battling the enemy at all the points where they have landed," Castro said.

"They are fighting in defence of the sacred fatherland and the revolution against an attack of mercenaries organized by the imperialistic government of the United States.

"Already, our troops are advancing against the enemy, sure of their victory."

Castro and Cuba's President Osvaldo Dorticos appealed for support from "our brothers of Latin America who have felt the reactionary force of the imperialistic North Americans."

The government radio said thousands of Cubans were pouring into the streets in cities all over the country to sing revolutionary songs and shout such slogans as "down with Yankee imperialism."

There were reports segments of the Cuban navy had revolted. For more than an hour this morning naval stations were heard trying to raise Cuban naval headquarters in Havana by radio. Castro has conducted four major purges of the navy in the last year.

The control tower at Havana airport notified Miami that the Cuban government had suspended all commercial aircraft flights over the island.

The U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay was ordered to half all flights except those cleared with Castro authorities.

lumbia, Peace, Liard and Yukon rivers.

Mr. Williston dealt with each step in the northward march to develop them.

He said engineering and planning on the Columbia will be completed by mid-summer. Premier Bennett and Federal Finance Minister Fleming are now working out financing.

"It may well be that a compromise will develop," said Mr. Williston. "There is no indication that an amicable agreement cannot be reached."

EXPORT SURPLUS ENERGY

He suggested that at-site power generation on Columbia dams might be developed more quickly than planned and the surplus energy exported.

"It could readily be shunted by co-ordinated interchange to California without having to travel the whole distance directly," he said.

"If the areas of generation are protected insofar as present and future requirements are concerned, why not gradually move north... then shut the energy from area to area as required?"

He said the Peace River, with its greater power potential, would be the next step north. Cheap power at-site would attract new B.C. industry; as a by-product, power would also be exported south.

Next would come the Liard River in northeastern B.C., said Mr. Williston. Its 4,000,000 kilowatt potential could be shunted to the Peace, and Peace power in turn shunted south.

Eventually the Yukon River power would come down to the Liard.

Mr. Williston said U.S. Army engineers are to start studies on the rampart canyon site of the Yukon River in Alaska, which it is estimated, could produce 5,000,000 kilowatts of power.

Success of the entire scheme would, of course, depend on relaxation of the current Canadian ban on export.

"International policies based upon mutual goodwill and understanding should allow for a maximum use of the sources of renewable energy so long as the regions of origin receive priority as to need and price," said Mr. Williston.

"If this power now being wasted can be used to profit and advantage in the Pacific coast area," he added, "positive steps directed towards use should be taken now."

'Sell Mortgages' CMHC Ordered

OTTAWA (CP) — The government has instructed Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation to offer for sale about $750,000,000 in National Housing Act mortgages held by CMHC, Works Minister Walker said today.

He told the Commons the government action is designed to create a secondary market for mortgages in the hope of stimulating the flow of private investment into housing and stabilizing the house-building industry.

Mr. Walker said CMHC, the government's housing agency, has been told to offer the government-insured mortgages for sale at "reasonably attractive yields." Some bonds carry an interest of six per cent, while the going rate for NHA loans is 6 1/2 per cent.

CONSIDERATIONS MANY

The selling price of the mortgages will depend on many factors, Mr. Walker said. This would include the interest rate on the mortgages, the amount of time they still have to run, and "conditions in the capital market at the time of the sale."

Mr. Walker stressed that the sale of the mortgages will not affect the interests of the original borrowers.

EMPLOYMENT OFF 2.7% IN JANUARY

OTTAWA (CP) — Canadian industrial employment declined 2.7 per cent between December and January, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics said today.

The employment index, based on 1949 conditions equaling 100, was 111.7 in January as against 114.8 in December. In January, 1960, it was 115.1.

December to January declines in industrial employment occurred in all provinces. All industries were affected except mining, manufacturing, finance, insurance and real estate.

VANCOUVER (CP) — The trial of a libel action brought by Irene Rebrin against a Toronto newspaper was adjourned today.

It is not expected to be heard now until the fall sittings of the court and may not come up until next year.

Miss Rebrin is suing the Toronto Telegram, publisher John Bassett and parliamentary reporter Peter Dempson and Ottawa Journal reporter Richard Jackson as a result of an article published in the Telegram a year ago.

CONTROVERSY STIRS QUEBEC

Religion in the School?

QUEBEC (CP) — A move to launch an education system in Quebec province divorced from religion attracted attention here this weekend when two school commission leaders said schooling without God is out of the question.

Paul Desrochers, president of the Quebec Federation of Roman Catholic School Commissions, said:

"We must form a common front before the danger threatens us."

Wilbroad Bherer, president of the Quebec City School Commission, said:

"Schooling without God has no place here."

He was a speaker at a reception honoring six teachers for long service.

Mr. Desrochers said close co-operation is necessary between his group and the recreations organization because "in these times of upheaval certain exaggerated minds want to upset our educational system, our teaching methods and especially to do away with our religious convictions."

Mr. Bherer said to beware of "those innovating minds that are but propagandists of ideas that are not ours and cannot blossom in our surroundings."

The statements closed a week of stirring on the neutral.

The annual general meeting at 10:45 will be followed by a talk on "The Function of School Business Officials in Educational Management" by Wilfred Graham of the B.C. Education Department.

In the afternoon there will be a clinic on "The Duties and Responsibilities of School Business Officials," followed by a talk on property management by Hamilton Smith of Greater Victoria School District.

Provincial archivist Willard Ireland and R. J. Nation of Victoria will speak at Wednesday's sessions and on Thursday the main speaker will be F. E. Espley of the B.C. education department.

Stanley Park Car Crash Kills 2 Men

VANCOUVER (CP) — Police today identified Julius Ollos, operator of a beauty salon, as one of two men killed Sunday night when a car plunged down a 300-foot cliff at Prospect Point in Stanley Park.

The second man killed was earlier identified as Paul James Lauro, but police said they had presumed he was the second dead man, because the car was shown as registered in his name. It was learned, however, that Lauro is living in the Yukon, and the second man remains unidentified.

The car landed on rocks near the waters of Burrard Inlet and was demolished. It was spotted from above when one tail light remained visible.

RICHIBUCTO, N.B. (CP) — Joseph Tilton Comeau, 20, was sentenced Saturday to be hanged for murder in the knife-slaying of his mother.

The execution was set for July 19. The woman was found dead in a shed near the family's home in this north shore community New Year's Day.

VERWOERD LOSING GRIP RAPPED BY S.A. PAPER

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — South Africa's largest newspaper warned Sunday that the days of Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd's white supremacy government are numbered and the question facing South Africa is "How it is going to be changed."

The Johannesburg Sunday Times, which is bitterly critical of Verwoerd's apartheid policies, scoffed at the prime minister's statements that time will prove his racial policies correct.

"One comes to the conclusion that Verwoerd now is moving in a political dream world of his own, a world of illusion and unreality," the paper said.

"What concerns us about such statements is not their patent absurdity but that they should be seriously presented as facts. They suggest that, in rapid deterioration of this country's political fortunes, Dr. Verwoerd is losing his grip of affairs."

The Sunday Times reported Negroes are planning a three-day general strike to protest segregation when South Africa becomes a republic May 31.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — The cold war cost the world $14 million an hour, according to Army Undersecretary Stephen Alles.

Key Israel Official Accused of Spying

TEL AVIV, Israel (Reuters) — Some 100 persons have been questioned in the case of a retired Israeli army officer and former military planner accused of spying, a police spokesman said here Sunday night.

The spokesman for the police special branch said the officer, 49-year-old Lt. Col. Israel Beer, had been charged with "passing secret information to agents of a foreign power with intent to harm the security of the state."

The foreign power has not yet been named but it is generally assumed to be one of the Communist bloc nations. The case will be handled "shortly" to Attorney-General Gideon Hausner, the prosecutor in the current trial of Adolf Eichmann, the spokesman said. News of Beer's case has diverted the interest of the public from the trial of the former Nazi official.

Beer, regarded for many years as one of the "brain trust" of Israel's general staff, was ordered held Saturday for 14 days by a magistrate here. He was arrested March 31.

BICKERING IN CONGO

Food Shortage Hits UN Troops

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP) — UN troops in The Congo are running short of food while supplies pile up here and negotiations continue over who has the right to handle them.

The blockade of United Nations supplies at the key port of Matadi becomes daily more critical for the entire UN military operation in The Congo. A senior UN official indicated Sunday a crisis point may be reached within three or four weeks.

The current food shortage follows Matadi's loss in battle to the Congolese army. Ninety-five per cent of all imported UN supplies were handled at Matadi but weeks of negotiation with Congolese authorities have failed to get UN troops back to the port.

Supplies continue to arrive there but the UN refuses to recognize the right of the Congolese to handle them. To clear the docks, the Congolese have sent the supplies 250 miles by rail to Leopoldville, where more than 120,000 pounds of food and other goods have piled up in warehouses and cold storage plants.

None of these supplies so far has been delivered to the United Nations. Each side blames the other.

KASAVUBU PROMISES TO CO-OPERATE

LEOPOLDVILLE (UPI) — Congo President Joseph Kasavubu announced today his government will co-operate with the United Nations in recruiting foreign technicians and reorganizing the Congolese national army.

In a declaration which observers said may well mark a turning point in the relations between the United Nations and The Congo, Kasavubu called for UN help in various fields. But he added he hoped the UN troops would be able to leave "in several months" from now.

How to get the most from your life insurance

It's a three step suggestion and, as it should, it starts with you: When you purchased life insurance, you no doubt had in mind definite jobs for it to do for your family if you die; for you if you live. But time brings many changes... and it makes good sense for you to review your objectives and to check whether your life insurance currently meets them.

There are two other people who can help. The first is your wife. Your life insurance is designed for her and the family and it's wise to have her know your plans. The more she understands your objectives, the more she will be able to help you keep them up-to-date, and the better she'll be able to use this priceless protection that is being paid for through her careful budgeting.

The second is the Man from Manufacturers. Through him, the flexibility of your policies will come to life. His experienced, practical recommendations add up to an invaluable source of service for you now and for your family later.

A Dream No Longer

IT SEEMS QUITE CLEAR, IN the light of recent news from London, Washington and Ottawa, that Britain is seeking some kind of accommodation with the rich Common Market of Europe, and that the United States government is ardently supporting this project.

Probably the marriage of the two great European trading blocs was inevitable in any case both for economic reasons and for still higher political reasons. Europe, as Mr. Macmillan has so often said, cannot risk a deepening economic and political split.

If the European Common Market, and the European Free Trade Association headed by Britain are indeed coming together in a new tariff arrangement the effects on Canada will be profound.

In some degree at least Canada's tariff preference in the British market will be eroded when freer access is granted to Europe's goods. Already, indeed, the preferences are being eroded in the case of the Free Trade Association, whose seven member nations are reducing tariffs steadily among themselves and thus reducing Canada's preferred position for certain products in the British market.

But on balance the unification of Europe's economy should be of large benefit to Canada's total exports, however it may affect certain lines of production. For this unification, as the successful experience of the European Common Market has proved, will expand Europe's prosperity and increase its appetite for Canadian and other overseas goods.

Anyway, if the two trade blocs intend to merge, wholly or in part, Canada cannot stop them. These great affairs are not under our control. Britain must look to its own economic future and, at the moment, has no particular reason for gratitude to Canada which sells in the British market far more than it buys and has damaged Britain by its import restrictions on textiles and automobiles.

The logic of the whole European situation, the pull of gravity, must finally draw the two trade blocs together. The only question is when they will reach agreement and on what terms.

Apparently the objective of British and American policy, as indicated by Mr. Macmillan and Vice-President Lyndon Johnson in their recent speeches, is something much larger than the unification of Europe's economy. They look forward to a unification of the entire North Atlantic economy, the creation of an economic community spanning the ocean and embracing both Europe and North America.

This vast project is, indeed, the only real solution for the wrenching problems, both economic and political, that now confront the free world. As President Kennedy said in his inaugural address, there is little that a united free world cannot accomplish, little that it cannot do if it remains divided. The logical beginning, but not the end, of its progressive unification must be an Atlantic community of falling tariffs and rising trade, open to all nations willing to obey its rules.

As this project advances—inevitably in gradual stages over a period of years—the Canadian government must face some difficult decisions. Should it encourage and embrace an expansion of transatlantic trade for the benefit of the national economy as a whole? Or should it try to contract out of this broad movement and retreat further into the domestic Canadian market by increasing its restrictions on imports?

Up to now the government has refused to face these issues and tried to persuade itself that they do not exist. Mr. Fleming has denounced any change in the Commonwealth preference system when clearly it is going to change one way or another regardless of Canada's immediate convenience. He has also implied retaliation against Britain if it should join the Common Market and reduce its tariffs on European goods.

This negative position will no longer serve. As a great trading nation Canada should be a vigorous leader, not a reluctant follower in the creation of an Atlantic economic community. For it is only in a great expansion of foreign trade that our limping national economy can find markets for its goods, employment for all its people.

Mr. Pearson has long argued that proposition only to be told by the government that it is quite impractical, a kind of doctrinaire dream. The latest statements of the British and American governments show that it has become immediately practical politics, the best hope for the free world.

We Don't Know All the Answers—or Even the Questions

By B. A. TOBIN

IN AN age devoted to solving problems and finding answers to nature's secrets you would think that man would have become used to carrying around a few unsolved questions—and not letting the prospect bother him. In fact, you'd think that the "still unsolved" would be viewed as a pleasurable and welcome adjunct to life. If all the problems were solved and all the questions were answered, life would lose most, if not all, of its attraction.

But there are still many folk who are uncomfortable in the presence of an unanswered question. Rather than let the problem go unanswered they will seize on a wrong answer and persuade themselves that it is right. That provides something to fill up the void, and all is well. Sometimes the eagerness to get an answer—any answer—destroys the question. To see what is in the balloon, they prick it—then no balloon. It can work in reverse too—like an electrician who grabs a high-voltage line to see if the current is on or not. If he's wrong—no electrician. The careful workman, of course, would have his helper do the testing.

A somewhat similar situation occurred in England recently. A report tells of a small duck which appeared on a pond near Oxford. For months a controversy raged among bird watchers who formed two sides to declare that the bird was (a) a Lesser Scaup, or (b) a Pochard.

The surprising thing about the story—particularly for English bird watchers—is that it was finally decided to shoot the duck in order to determine what it was. The duck was killed, and turned out to be neither a Lesser Scaup nor a full-blooded Pochard.

Now they haven't got a duck. But they have got a fine public outcry ringing in their ears, as the British public rouses to condemn the retroactive questioners, i.e., those who haven't found out what they have, but only what they would have had if they still had it.

An arbitrarily chosen answer seems to be the only resort for those who are made unhappy by a question that can not be answered even by "shooting the duck."

Questions about infinity or eternity, about possible beginnings or possible endings to the universe—these we can never answer for sure. We can only speculate. And if unsatisfied speculation drives us mad, then we can only grasp one tentative answer and make it ours.

Science has been hailed as the means of answering all our questions. It has gone far along the road, but the very efficiency of science has now proved that there are some questions it can never answer.

In the minute world of the electron, for instance, it has become clear that there is a definite bar to complete knowledge. How can you "look" at a tiny particle, for instance, if the very light beam which conveys the sight moves or changes the particle? You have to prick the balloon to find out what it is, and then there is no balloon.

In the larger field of the cosmos, one theory holds that the universe may have started with a huge bang—a cosmic explosion which scattered all matter throughout space and is, indeed, still scattering it. But even if that theory could be proved to be true, science admits that it could not go farther back, beyond the big bang, to find out what existed before.

We might, with luck, some day know all the chapter of creation in which we happen to live, but we can never know the whole book, neither the chapters before nor those to come.

Should this be a cause of irritation or discomfort? Can it not be just a mental barbell on which we can strain from time to time as a form of exercise and pleasure, even though we know we never can lift it?

The big thing, of course, so far as man's destiny is concerned, is to keep on trying to find answers—to keep on trying to lift the weights. A lot of barbellers have been hefted in the past few years. We're getting ahead—even if most of the answers do raise another, still harder, question.

Some day, along with finding out about nature, man may find out some more about himself—and that would really be progress. Let's hope he can get the answer without killing the duck.

What Will the Government Do Now About the Railways?

By MAURICE WESTERN

WHAT are the intentions of the government in respect to the MacPherson report?

This now is a pressing question because the prime minister last December tied the railway wage controversy and the unsettled freight rate problem to the work of the royal commission—suspending the right to strike until May 15, by which time the report would be available. The report is now at hand and the government has about a month before the May deadline. The rate freeze ends on April 30, when increases already won by the railways will take effect.

In tabling the document on Monday, Mr. Diefenbaker gave no hint of what the ministers have in mind. Since then he has warded off questions with the usual formula that the House will be advised when a determination has been made by the government.

The government's intentions, therefore, assuming that they remain unaltered—are to be read only in the prime minister's advice to the House when the crisis legislation was debated at the end of 1960. His words on that occasion (Hansard, November 30, page 359) were as follows:

"The reason we say we are waiting for the report of the royal commission is this. It will make its report as to the means whereby these discriminatory rates may be avoided. Legislation will then be introduced in order to equalize opportunity across Canada. The freeze will then be taken off and the railway companies may then make an application to the Board of Transport Commissioners to raise the freight rates and to take into consideration the agreements now in existence between the employers and the unions back to January 1, 1960."

It is reasonable, therefore, to anticipate legislation and at a very early date. But what sort of legislation?

Mr. MacPherson and his colleagues have not addressed themselves to wage problems; that was not their job, as the prime minister frankly recognized on November 30. Neither have they sought to treat symptoms or to propose palliatives. Their purpose, in their own words, was "to arrive at fundamental solutions" and their recommendations look to the most sweeping reorganization of the Canadian railway systems.

It is obvious that this reorganization will affect many great interests and people scattered all across the country. It will affect the provinces, the grain growers, the elevator companies, all the small businesses established along thousands of miles of track marked for gradual abandonment.

It will affect railway labor. In his initial reaction Mr. Frank Hall, the union leader, noted only that subsidies would help the companies to meet wage demands. But it is surely of greater significance to labor that rationalization will mean a contraction of the railway work force requiring important adjustments for men now in service.

The point is that legislation of this character cannot surely be implemented through a ministerial crash program.

Is there a possibility then that the government will defer action on fundamental legislation and seek escape from its present plight by an interim measure intended to avert a crisis after May 15? This would be rather difficult to reconcile with Mr. Diefenbaker's forecast of last November but might be attractive to the ministry on other grounds.

It would, however, be a course embarrassing to the government if, as seems likely, it involved a temporary subsidy to head off a rail strike.

On November 28 Mr. Diefenbaker reported as follows on his talks with Mr. Hall: "I said that any acceptance of this request for a postponement (until May 15) was made on the basis that we did not intend to give a subsidy from the people of Canada for, in doing so, we would simply be placing on the people of Canada as a whole a responsibility which at this time did not rest upon the people as a whole."

He went on to say that, with the rate freeze lifted, the companies and unions would be free to bargain again. Or, presumably, the unions would be free to strike. Is the government now prepared to allow matters to be settled in that way?

Mr. Starr also condemned resort to subsidy. "In the case of the Canadian National Railways," he said, "the taxpayers of this country are already being called upon to make up huge deficits. To require the Canadian taxpayer to subsidize the operating expenses of the Canadian Pacific Railway would be setting a most dangerous and costly precedent."

The Aldermanic Lights That Failed

THE PUBLIC RESPONSE TO the threat that the cluster lights would be removed from the city, to be replaced by mercury vapor "goose-neck" lighting, should by now have been sufficient to convince even the most self-determined alderman. The outcry to retain the distinctive and traditional clusters is almost unanimous.

The Mayor and Alderman Lily Wilson had correctly interpreted the public's opinion. They knew how Victorians feel about this feature of the city, and they were not stampeded by exaggerated statements about traffic dangers. The latter consideration, in fact, was obviously not believed even by those who used it as an argument, since they were willing to leave the clusters in certain sections of the city without any additional illumination.

But now the people have spoken—in an unofficial manner, it is true, but nonetheless emphatically. Mr. Edgelow has seen the trend and admits his willingness to do what the people who elected him want done. Can we depend on other council members similarly to fall in line with Victoria's thinking?

Some aldermen might, at this point, profitably review the number of occasions on which they have fallen short of what the public expected, or found themselves in opposition to the electors' intentions. Getting into office seems to get some men out of touch.

REVELATION IN AN EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH MR. KHRUSHCHEV

The New Dogma: 'While There Are Neutral Countries, There Are No Neutral Men'

ON this, our second visit, my wife and I were taken on a long journey by plane and auto to Mr. Khrushchev's country place in Soshi on the Black Sea. Before we left Moscow, accompanied by two interpreters and an official of the press department, there was much mystery about all the details of the coming visit, such as when and where we were to see the Great Man. In fact, as it turned out, he had no other appointments after half-past eleven in the morning, when he met us in the pine woods near the entrance of his place. Eight hours later, a bit worn by much talk and two large meals, we insisted on leaving in order to go to bed.

Lippmann

I would not like to leave the impression that all eight hours were devoted to great affairs of the world. Perhaps, all told, three-and-a-half hours were spent in serious talk. The rest of the time went into the two prolonged meals at which Mr. Khrushchev, who is on what appears to be a non-fattening diet, broke the rules, saying joyously that the doctor had gone to Moscow for a day or two.

The talk was largely banter between Mr. Khrushchev and Mikoyan, who joined us for lunch, and the banter turned chiefly on Armenian food and Armenian wine and Armenian customs, which include the compulsion to drink all glasses to the end at each toast.

Though we all drank a bit more than we wanted, Mikoyan chose to regard us as American ascetics who only sipped their wine. Finally Mr. Khrushchev took pity on us by providing a bowl into which we could pour the wine as fast as Mikoyan filled our glasses.

Between this heroic eating and drinking, we walked around the place, which is large, met Mr. Khrushchev's grandson and Mikoyan's granddaughter, inspected the new and very gadgety swimming pool and, believe it or not, played badminton with Mr. Khrushchev.

In the serious talks, I might say that my wife made fairly full notes. I made a few jottings, but there was no transcript and the translation was done very ably by Mr. Victor M. Sukhodrev who is an official in the Foreign Ministry. It was understood that I was free to write what I liked when I had left Russia and to quote Mr. Khrushchev, or not to quote him as seemed desirable. I shall set down my own understanding and interpretation of the most important and interesting points that he made.

For an opening I reminded him that we had last seen him in October 1958, nearly a year before his visit to the United States. Much has happened in these two-and-a-half years and would he tell me what seemed to him the most important events for good or evil?

After a moment or two of hesitation, he replied that during this period the two main forces in the world—the capitalist and the socialist—have concluded that it was useless to "test" one another by military means. I took him to mean by "test" the backing of their political aims by the threat of war.

In contrast to 1958, when he professed to believe that the United States and Germany might attack him, he spoke with confidence that because of the growing strength of the Communist orbit, the threat of war from our side was dying down.

As a result, the United States was abandoning the "Dulles doctrine" that the neutrality of small states is "immoral." He himself welcomed President Kennedy's proposals for a neutral Laos.

You think then, I asked him, that there has been a change in United States policy?

To this he replied that while there were some signs of a change; as for example in Laos, it was not a "radical" change, as could be seen in the United States attitude towards disarmament.

What, I asked him, is wrong with the United States attitude? We cannot see, he replied, that any change is imminent when the subject of disarmament is put in the hands of such a believer in armaments as Mr. McCloy.

We think well of Mr. McCloy and during his time in Germany we had good relations with him. But asking him to deal with disarmament is a case of asking the goal to look after the cabbage patch.

I interjected the remark that the final decisions would be made by the President. But Mr. Khrushchev insisted that the forces behind the President would determine his policy. These forces behind the Kennedy administration he summed up in the one word "Rockefeller."

The view that he is running the Kennedy administration will be news to Gov. Rockefeller. I should add that Mr. Khrushchev considers me a Republican, which will be news to Mr. Nixon.

Then we got onto the subject of nuclear testing. He said that the Western powers were not ready to conclude an agreement, and that this was shown, among other things, by the demand for 21 or perhaps 19 inspections a year.

He had been led personally to believe that the West would be satisfied with about three "symbolic" inspections. Nineteen inspections, our present demand, were nothing but a demand for the right to conduct complete reconnaissance of the Soviet Union.

I asked him about his attitude towards underground testing. He replied that the U.S.S.R. has never done any underground testing and never will. I asked why? Because, he said, we do not see any value in small tactical atomic weapons. If it comes to war, we shall use only the biggest weapons. The smaller ones are very expensive and they can decide nothing. The fact that they are expensive doesn't bother you because you don't care what you spend and, what is more, many of your generals are connected with big business. But in the U.S.S.R. we have to economize, and tactical weapons are a waste.

I report this without having the technical expertise to comment on it.

Then he went on to say that the second reason why he had no great hopes of an agreement was that the French are now testing and are unlikely to sign the agreement. It is obvious, he said, that if the French are not in the agreement, they will do the testing for the Americans.

To which I said: and the Chinese will do the testing for you. He paused and then said that this was a fair remark.

But, he added, while China is moving in the direction where she will be able to make tests, she is not yet able to make them. When the time comes that she can, there will be a new problem. We would like all states to sign a nuclear agreement.

Finally, he came to his third reason why an agreement may not be possible. It turns on the problem of the administrator of the agreement. Here, he was vehement and unqualified.

He would never accept a single neutral administrator. Why? Because, he said, while there are neutral countries, there are no neutral men.

You would not accept a Communist administrator and I cannot accept a non-Communist administrator. I will never entrust the security of the Soviet Union to any foreigner. We cannot have another Hammarskjöld, no matter where he comes from among the neutral countries.

I found this enlightening. It was plain to me that here is a new dogma, that there are no neutral men! After all the Soviet Union had accepted Trygve Lie and Hammarskjöld.

The Soviet government has now come to the conclusion that there can be no such thing as an impartial civil servant in this deeply divided world, and that the kind of political celibacy which the British theory of the civil service calls for is in international affairs a fiction.

This new dogma has long consequences. It means that there can be international co-operation only if, in the administration as well as in the policy-making, the Soviet Union has a veto.

Our talk went on to Cuba, Iran, revolutionary movements in general, and finally to Germany. I shall report on these topics in subsequent articles. (c) 1961 New York Herald Tribune Inc.

Varicose Veins? Operate

Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayor Clinic and Emeritus Professor of Medicine, Mayo Foundation

Women by the dozen write asking what they should have done to their varicose, or large dilated and tortuous, veins—veins that look like a lot of big worms coiled under the skin.

Alvarez

Fortunately, in many cases, for many years these veins do not cause much trouble; they bother the woman mainly because they are unsightly. Often to hide them and to support them a bit the woman can wear one of the new elastic stockings that do not look bad.

When the veins begin to give trouble, the best thing is to have them removed. This can be done through only a few small cuts in the overlying skin. Sometimes, in addition, the surgeon has to tie the big vein in the groin.

Some physicians used to inject the veins with a drug which tended to make the walls stick together, thereby obliterating the vessel. But often this did not work well, and hence today leading experts in this field refuse to use the technique. All they ever do when something has to be done, is to operate.

People who take large doses of sex hormones to hold down the growth of cancer cells write to ask if this treatment is dangerous. I doubt if it is. Actually, one cannot stop to worry about such things when one is fighting for one's life.

It is the same way when a person is being treated for cancer with tremendous doses of some form of radiation.

To be sure, no young person would want to accept so much radiation for some mild or harmless disease; but when a person perhaps past 60 or 70 is fighting for his life, any risk involved must be accepted cheerfully.

Actually, the person probably will not live long enough (perhaps he would require 15 or 20 years) to develop cancer from the heavy dosage of radiation.

I have for long been convinced that many of those few persons who die on an operating table—often after only a whiff of anesthesia, and sometimes even before the anesthesia was started—die of fright.

I became interested in this phenomenon when I was a boy, helping my father with operations for which we gave the patient a little chloroform.

What impressed me was that on the few occasions when our patient was a "sad sack" who said he'd never survive the operation, he quit breathing shortly after I started the anesthetic.

And then only with great effort did my father and I keep him from dying as he had promised to do. After a few such experiences, I told my father I never again wanted to give an anesthetic to anyone who said he was going to die. He practically always seemed to try hard to keep his promise!

I also was much impressed by an experience I had when I was a small boy. My father and I had caught a rat in the barn, and when a dog had started barking at it, it rolled over dead.

Dad and I were careful to make sure that it was not "playing possum." Later, I read how when down in Arizona, a pet road-runner—a good-sized desert bird—was brought face to face with a stuffed owl, it fell over dead.

Hundreds of women write, asking me to tell them everything I know about the menopause, and what can be done to relieve the symptoms. Obviously, I cannot stop in my very busy day to do that.

Fortunately, a few able women have written excellent books on the menopause—among them are "You'll Live Through It," by Dr. Miriam Lincoln, and "Facts about the Menopause," by Maxine Davis.

The important things for a woman to do are to remember that millions of women have lived through this trying time of nerves, flushes, depression and readjustment to life.

It is no use looking ahead and fearing a hard menopause long before it comes, because many a woman with good sense, good nerves, and no tendency to get depressed or to fuss at life, just quits menstruating, and that is all. She goes on her way without any symptoms.

Others can largely control their flushes by taking 0.5 mg. of Stilbestrol once a day. Some, for a while, will need a sleeping tablet at night. Some will need to face the fact that with their children married and gone, and their husband carrying the greatest burdens of his career, they are going to be neglected.

No one is going to fuss over them or amuse them or comfort them, and so the sooner they find new interests and learn to stand on their own two feet the better.

Slow Progress for JFK In Push to New Frontier

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's legislative program has encountered such stiff opposition in Congress that officials are scaling down their forecasts of New Frontier accomplishments.

President Kennedy and Vice-President Lyndon Johnson are described by associates as disappointed by slow progress of the president's legislative program through a Congress in which the Democrats control by a 2-to-1 margin.

The two were said to be in agreement that opposition forces have been more successful than anticipated in the use of delaying tactics against administration bills, particularly those in the welfare field.

The political pros of the administration—and these include the president and vice-president—give Republican leaders in Congress credit for some deft maneuvering which denied Kennedy the honeymoon period a new president and vice-president usually enjoys with a Congress dominated by his own party.

Senator minority leader Everett Dirksen of Illinois and House leader Charles Halleck of Indiana have encountered some Republican criticism of their tactics, but Kennedy and Johnson do not underestimate their ability to drum up a coalition of opposition.

DIXIE DEMS OPPOSED

A majority of southern Democrats oppose many of Kennedy's proposals as strongly as the Republicans.

National organizations such as the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, the National Association of Manufacturers and the American Medical Association are bolstering this opposition against specific bills.

On the other side of the coin, Kennedy is finding liberals in the Democratic party somewhat less than enthusiastic in their support of his program. Some say his proposals are too modest; some are disgruntled about patronage matters.

This situation has led political veterans in the administration to the conclusion that Congress is likely to trim many of Kennedy's proposals and pigeonhole others.

There are strong indications his bill to link medical care

7,000 Reds In Ministry Says Bircher

AMARILLO, Tex. (CP)—Robert Welch, founder of the fanatically anti-Communist John Birch Society, said Saturday 7,000 of the United States' 200,000 Protestant ministers are either Communists or Communist sympathizers.

He told an audience of about 2,200 that "Protestant ministers do not become Communists, but Communists do become Protestant ministers."

Welch, a 61-year-old retired candy maker from Belmont, Mass., said that this same percentage—three per cent—of Communists or Communist sympathizers are working in the federal government.

"I am sure that more than 97 per cent of all the employees of our federal government have been loyal and patriotic Americans even right through the very betrayals which they themselves are helping to implement," he said.

Prison Fire Starts In Douk Cell Area

BURNABY (CP).—Firemen were called early today to extinguish a fire in an Oakalla prison farm building where 13 Sons of Freedom Doukhobor women are serving two-month terms for contempt of court.

Fire department authorities said the fire was set after clothing was stuffed into walls of the building. No injuries were reported.

Smoke and water damage described as minor resulted.

UNITED NATIONS (CP)

A new attempt to weed out foreign intervention in the Congo and encourage Congolese leaders to make a fresh try at peace has been approved by the United Nations General Assembly.

In a series of votes Saturday night, the 99-member assembly again demanded the withdrawal from the Congo of Belgian military and political personnel, as well as all foreign mercenaries. It stopped short, however, of setting a deadline or of threatening sanctions.

Although further speeches are scheduled for late today by countries that wish to explain their votes, the halting Saturday was considered the climax of a two-week debate on the Congo. It's decisions generally were mild.

UN Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld—under severe criticism by the Soviet bloc—was given a resounding vote of confidence when the assembly named him as the authority to prevent shipments of war material to the Congo except under UN.

NO DATE SET

The world body voted for an early reopening of the Congolese Parliament—with parliamentarians being protected by the UN Congo force—but here again declined to set a deadline.

Perhaps the assembly's toughest decisions involved Belgians—former rulers of the Congo and mercenaries. In the background was a newly-released UN report charging that mercenaries were being systematically recruited in Africa and Europe for service in secessionist Katanga province. The report named a Belgian as one of the recruiters.

A 21-nation resolution demanding the withdrawal of Belgian military and semi-military personnel and political advisers was approved by a vote of 61 to five with 33 abstentions. Canada voted with the majority.

Then the assembly approved a Canadian-supported 17-country resolution setting fourth objectives for the Congo. The vote was 60 to 16 with 23 abstentions.

Under this measure the assembly stated it "considers it essential that necessary and effective measures be taken by the secretary-general immediately to prevent the introduction of arms, military equipment and supplies in the Congo except in conformity with the resolutions of the United Nations."

It urges the reconvening of parliament "without delay" with safe conduct extended to its members so that they "may take the necessary decisions concerning the formation of a national government and the future constitutional structure" of the Congo.

Approval was given to still another resolution setting up a four-man commission to investigate the slaying of deposed Congolese premier Patrice Lumumba.

Members will be Justice U. Aung Mye Thazan of Burma, Georges de Togo, Teschome Halemariam of Ethiopia, and Jose Ortiz Tirado of Mexico or "any other person nominated" by the Mexican government.

HOME GARDEN

By HILDA BEASTALL

Bushier Plants by 'Pinching'

Some of us use gardening terms without thinking of the bewilderment of the newcomers to gardening.

One in frequent use at this time of year is the "pinching" of plants.

At first hearing this might imply that the gardener was being advised to hop over the fence and "acquire" a few plants from his neighbor's place just after dark.

We refer, however, to a much more discreet form of pinching.

When certain annual plants, for instance, are being raised from seed, they reach a stage when pinching out the growing tip on each plant is beneficial. Removing the tips (pinching) can be done with the thumbnail without damaging the young side shoots just starting. The process results in the side shoots growing vigorously, thus producing more compact, bushy plants.

TOO TALL

Annuals which particularly benefit from this treatment are snapdragons, schizanthus (butterfly flower), salpiglossis (painted-tongue), sweet pea and border carnations. These will all grow pretty tall if left unpinched, and begin to put out flowering side shoots only after the central shoot has come into bloom.

The best time to do the pinching of annuals is when the little plants are between three and four inches tall. With snaps, sweet peas and butterfly flower a greatly increased number of flowers will be produced simultaneously, and the advantage of "pinching" plants will be readily noticeable.

Steady Increase All Along Line

Canadian, U.S. and British bourses all seemed headed for another gainful week as both Wall Street and Toronto in fairly heavy trading saw key issues on the upgrade. Toronto early in the day rose as high as 176 but slipped later on profit-taking to close slightly down.

Ford Sales In Canada On Increase

TORONTO (CP)—Sales in the first three months of this year, as compared with the corresponding period last year, were reported today by Karl E. Scott, president, at the annual meeting of Ford Motor Company of Canada Ltd.

Unit sales of all products, including imports, were up about three per cent; sales of North American-type cars were up five per cent; and retail truck deliveries advanced some four per cent.

Ford's Falcon and Comet, Mr. Scott said, accounted for 44 per cent of total compact car sales in Canada for the first quarter.

"Nevertheless, similar operating factors persist in 1961 which caused net income after taxes in 1960 to decline 18 per cent from 1959."

ECONOMY SURGING

Among favorable factors Mr. Scott listed the following: Strong indications that the Canadian economy is beginning to regain its forward momentum; competition from European imported cars "appears to be easing"; North American-type cars, "led by the new compacts and strongly supported by low-priced standard models, are being re-affirmed as first choice in the Canadian automobile market"; Canadian consumer expenditures are likely to rise two or three per cent in 1961; money is "a bit easier"; and federal, provincial and municipal government expenditures are likely to be up five per cent this year.

Real Problem In Economic Tie With U.S.

CLEVELAND (CP)—Postmaster General Hamilton said here today that "a genuine problem" exists in the economic relations between Canada and the United States that must be faced by both countries.

He said that in 1959 Canada paid a total of some $5.6 billion dollars to the U.S. for goods, travel, dividends, freight and shipping while the United States paid Canada only $4.4 billion.

He told the Sales Executives Clubs of Cleveland, Ohio, that 1957 figures show that United States interests controlled 44 per cent of Canada's manufacturing, 71 per cent of petroleum and natural gas and 52 per cent of mining and smelting.

"Such a situation might be more easily understood if we were an underdeveloped, little industrialized nation with a low standard of living," Mr. Hamilton said.

TODAY'S GRAIN PRICES

WINNIPEG (CP) — Moderate activity in flax trading had developed by the close of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today, although prices remained somewhat irregular.
The oats and barley markets continued light and domestic. Prices moved narrowly.
Firming trends in the local rye market were influenced by trends in Chicago rye.
Overnight export loadings of Canadian wheat: China 700,000 bushels, Japan 500,000, The Philippines 45,000 and the United Kingdom 40,000.
Lakehead prices for class two, IWA and domestic wheat all were unchanged from Friday.
Losses featured Steel Company, off 1 1/2 to 7 1/2, while in mines Noranda gained 1/2 to 4 1/2 and Hudson Bay Mining and Smelting a point to 54.
In western oils trading was light with few major changes.
AT MONTREAL the mixed trend continued early this afternoon in active trading. Papers dropped lower and in industrial edged ahead.
Among active stocks Imperial Tobacco improved 1/2 at 14 1/2 on 10,163 shares. Bell Telephone rights sold 74,000 shares, off 2 cents at $1.07.
Mines were mixed. Hollinger lost 1/4 at 24, Saucen eased 21 cents to $2.20 and Opemiska gained 10 cents at $7.40.
In base metals Hudson Bay rose 2 points to lead winners. Western oils were also mixed. Pacific Petroleum gained 1/2 at 12 1/2, Home Oil lost 1/2 at 11 1/2, and Canadian Delphi eased 10 cents to $4.50.
AT NEW YORK a scattering of selected issues made progress in a mixed stock market late this afternoon. Trading was heavy.
Among stocks which met speculative demand, American Broadcasting-Paramount spurred more than 3 points and Sperry Rand was up about 2.
The top steelmakers were slightly ahead. General Motors and Chrysler gained fractions while Ford eased.
Among Canadian stocks, three mining issues made good gains. Hudson Bay mining was up 1 1/2, Granby Mining advanced 1/2, and Dome Mines 1/2.
AT LONDON prices were higher while awaiting the British budget statement. (See story page 3.)
Gilt-edged securities were quiet but prices were better and few were changed. Dollar stocks were mainly higher.
Gold shares were quiet and tended to ease due to a lack of interest and coppers lost ground but Debeers deferred was good in diamonds. Tin shares improved.
AT VANCOUVER trading was active with prices mixed during the morning. Bethlehem traded between $1.40 and $1.50. Craigmont went to $12. Canam Copper was at 26 1/2. Woodward Stores "A" sold at $19.

Calgary Power Ltd. Reports Net Increase
CALGARY (CP)—Calgary Power Ltd. had a net income of $6,246,259 in 1960, about $648,000 above the previous year, the company said in its annual report Saturday.
It said that the company's load was boosted 101 per cent last year over 1959 to pass the 2,000,000 kilowatt hour mark for the first time.

Hot piston test reveals the ash-free secret of Shell X-100 Premium. Here's how Shell scientists can prove that Shell X-100 Premium leaves no additive ash. A simulated aluminum piston is heated and a few drops of conventional multi-grade motor oil dropped on it. As the picture on left shows, this oil leaves a deposit. This deposit is additive ash. When the test is repeated, as at right, with Shell X-100 Premium, all the oil vaporizes. It leaves no additive ash. This is important, because additive ash can contribute to engine knock and uneven performance.

BREAKTHROUGH:

Suddenly Shell makes every other motor oil obsolete —with a revolutionary new formula which fights the five internal troubles that can shorten engine life

Shell's research on engine behaviour discloses five common internal troubles that can shorten the life of your car.

These troubles are additive ash, crankcase dirt, temperature changes, engine acid, and cooling system leaks. They all act silently and unseen.

Read how new X-100* Premium Motor Oil prolongs engine life by fighting all five troubles—and why Shell scientists can make this unique promise.

TODAY, every Shell dealer in Canada has a new Shell X-100 Premium Motor Oil ready for your Spring oil change.

New Shell X-100 Premium is a true scientific breakthrough because it is the only motor oil available that protects your car simultaneously against these five internal troubles that can shorten engine life.

Do you know what these troubles are? If not, you owe it to your engine to read this advertisement. Ten minutes' time now can save you hours of trouble in the future.

Trouble #1—additive ash

Up to now, even the best premium motor oils were powerless to guard against additive ash—because they actually created it. While endeavouring to keep your crankcase shipshape, some of the ingredients in these oils contributed to the hard crust of ash inside your combustion chamber.

All other premium motor oils still have the same snag.

The trouble stems from the metallic additives used to prevent scuffing, dirt deposits, oxidation and so forth. These additives do what's expected of them, but with each stroke of the piston, they can leave a tiny amount of metallic salts in the combustion chamber where they burn and form additive ash.

This hard crusty ash, when allowed to build up, can seriously affect your car's performance—and can make it knock and run roughly.

New Shell X-100 Premium doesn't add to this problem—because it doesn't contain a single metallic additive.

No metal additives. No additive ash from motor oil. It's as simple as that.

Trouble #2—crankcase dirt

All engines accumulate crankcase dirt no matter how well they are protected by filters. The problem is to stop this dirt from getting together and forming sticky sludge which can clog your engine.

Most premium oils use a detergent additive to do the job. And they perform well. But, like other additives, most detergents are metallic and cause that old devil—ash.

Shell's solution is to replace detergent with a remarkable new ingredient known as a dispersant. Shell scientists call it Alkadine.*

Alkadine in new Shell X-100 Premium helps keep your engine clean by holding dirt particles apart. Thus they don't form sticky sludge. Some particles can be trapped by the oil filter; most are drained out when you change your oil.

Oddly enough, nobody yet knows exactly how Alkadine works. But the proof of the pudding is in the testing. After 1,200,000 miles of city driving, engines of test cars lubricated with Shell X-100 Premium showed so little sludge that it could hardly be measured.

Trouble #3—temperature changes

Many motor oils tend to become too thick when cold and too thin when hot.

New Shell X-100 Premium is an all-year oil. Here's how it works. Alkadine has a molecular structure that resembles a basket of eels.

When the oil is cold, Alkadine's eel-like molecules curl up as if for comfort. In effect, they take up less space in the oil—and the oil flows freely through the tightest bearing, even on cold nights.

This is new Shell X-100 Premium. Look for the white can with red letters. Your Shell service station now has it.

Conversely, when the Alkadine in new Shell X-100 Premium is hot, its molecules uncurl. They take up more room. And the oil resists thinning.

Thus, new Shell X-100 Premium eliminates trouble from sudden temperature changes. It lubricates just as efficiently in June as it does in January.

Trouble #4—engine acid

All automobile engines manufacture acid. This acid can do far more damage than friction. It can eat away at engine parts in much the way stomach acid can cause ulcers. Then you're really in trouble.

One way to combat engine acid is to make the oil alkaline. Many oils use this method. But here's what happens.

The neutralizing effect of alkaline oil inevitably gets weaker and weaker as engine acid eats up the alkalinity—till it eventually stops working completely. When this happens, your oil no longer gives you anti-acid protection.

Shell tackles this troublesome acid problem in a new and better way.

Shell X-100 Premium actually plates all engine surfaces with a thin chemical film. The metal literally adsorbs some of Shell X-100 Premium's protective qualities. Chemists call this phenomenon "chemisorption."

"Chemisorption" offers a longer-lasting protection against acid attack than any other method yet invented.

Trouble #5—cooling system leaks

Tiny anti-freeze leaks can play nasty tricks with many motor oils.

These oils can react chemically with permanent anti-freeze and form a horrible sludge which can actually bring an otherwise healthy engine to a standstill. Then you're on the way to a major repair bill.

New Shell X-100 Premium sets all such fears at rest. It resists reaction with any sort of anti-freeze. It shrugs it off. (Better get that leak fixed, anyhow, to keep your cooling system working.)

The additives in Shell X-100 Premium resist washing out with water, too. In some oils, additives can be lost to water leaks. In Shell X-100 Premium, they stay in the oil to protect your engine.

Astounding results from 5½ million-mile road test

Professional drivers put Shell X-100 Premium to a brutal test. They took $270,000 worth of automobiles and drove them relentlessly for 5½ million miles. Over highways, up mountain grades, around test tracks, over turnpikes—and through stop and go city traffic, the toughest test of all.

When Shell technicians tore the engines apart for inspection, here's what they found.

1. Wear was incredibly low. One car lubricated with Shell X-100 Premium still revealed the original tool markings on its rings—even after 70,000 miles at speeds of 60 to 100 mph.

The low wear with Shell X-100 Premium was verified over and over. In fact, when nine cars were driven at test track speeds for 70,000 to 100,000 miles, it was found that, from the standpoint of cylinder wear, the engines were good for another 100,000 miles.

2. Cleanliness ratings were tops. Pistons removed from a car lubricated with Shell

X-100 Premium scored a rating of 9.5 out of a possible 10. A score of 9 is considered excellent.

3. Sludge was reduced to almost half the amount that lubrication experts consider to be acceptable.

4. Oil consumption records caused cheers. Cars lubricated with Shell X-100 Premium were driven at race track speeds for 100,000 miles, yet used only one quart every 1,800 miles.

On some tests, Shell X-100 Premium even out-performed expensive laboratory reference oils. Shell X-100 Premium, fortunately, is neither expensive nor a laboratory oddity.

How much does Shell X-100 Premium cost?

If you drive an average of 10,000 miles per year, the switch to Shell X-100 Premium (with regular oil changes) will cost you only $7.20 more than ordinary oil—give or take a nickel. And probably nothing extra if you already use a premium grade.

Drive to your Shell service station and ask the dealer to change your oil while the engine is still hot. Be sure to ask for Shell X-100 Premium in the white can. It protects your engine from all five internal troubles listed above.

HOLLYWOOD 'BESTS' KNOWN TONIGHT

Everyone Sees Oscar for 'Liz

By JAMES BACON
SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Almost everybody is betting that Elizabeth Taylor will win her first Oscar tonight — everybody but the beautiful star herself.
"I'm not betting on it," Miss Taylor told a reporter, "but I'll be there just the same. She admits she's feeling a little squeamish as the zero hour approaches for Hollywood's 33rd annual academy award show.

"The competition looks tougher than ever," said Liz, who has been nominated four times in a row.

The two-hour awards show, telecast over ABC-TV, gets under way at 7:30 p.m. PST, from the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium. Bop Hope will be master of ceremonies.

TIGHT RACE
According to most polls, only the big contention is among the men. It's a down-to-the-wire race between Jack Lemmon and Burt Lancaster for best actor. The same goes for Sal Mineo and Peter Ustinov for best supporting actor.

Among the supporting actresses, Shirley Jones, like Miss Taylor, is rated a shoo-in. It will be a big night for Liz, win or lose. It's her first public outing since her near-fatal illness. If she wins, her doctor has warned her to go easy on the celebration afterwards. She was nominated for "Butterfield 8". Her competition is Greer Garson for "Sunrise at Campobello", Deborah Kerr for "The Sundowners", Shirley MacLaine for "The Apartment", and Melina Mercouri for the Greek-made "Never on Sunday".

Should Lemmon win for "The Apartment," he will become the first actor to win both the supporting and top acting awards. Lemmon won previously for Mr. Roberts.

HOWARD A DARK HORSE
Lancaster, the rousing sawdust revivalist of "Elmer Gantry", has never won an Oscar. A dark horse is Britain's Trevor Howard of "Sons and Lovers".
Spencer Tracy, "Inherit the Wind", and Laurence Olivier, "The Entertainer", are so consistently good that voters often take them for granted.

Mineo won his supporting role nomination as the Palestinian terrorist in "Exodus", and Ustinov stole scenes from Olivier and Charles Laughton in "Spartacus".

The other supporting nominees are Peter Falk, "Murder, Inc."; Jack Krushchen, "The Apartment"; and Chill Wills, "The Alamo".

GROOM DIES IN CAR CRASH

Bride 24 Hours... Then a Widow

TORONTO (CP) — George Zaglaviras, 22, saved his money from a Toronto tailoring shop for two years to bring his fiancée from Greece to their simple wedding Saturday.

Sunday, after only 24 hours as Mrs. Zaglaviras, George's bride is a widow. George was killed when their rented honeymoon car crashed en route to Niagara Falls, Ont.

His bride is in serious condition in hospital with both legs broken and chest injuries. She has been in Canada one month. Zaglaviras left Athens two years ago with the promise to Angela he would send for her. They had wanted to rent a hall for celebrations following the ceremony at St. George's Greek Orthodox Church, but friend Peter Gollas said "no!" They could not afford it.

So after the wedding, at which Mr. Gollas placed the crown on the bridegroom's head, the three dozen guests went to Mr. Gollas' tiny restaurant for a modest reception and dance.
Sunday the couple set off for their trip to Niagara Falls. Police said Zaglaviras lost control of the car in a strong wind and crashed into the boulevard on Queen Elizabeth Highway.

Adjudicator Passes Up Best Male Actor Award

By AUDREY JOHNSON
In a move substantially preceded in all properly run contests, Robert Orchard, adjudicating the Southern Vancouver Island Drama Festival's final session Saturday night, decided not to make any award for male actor or director.

Best play was named as the St. Luke's Players' entry of "Merry Wives of Windsor," a capsule version of the Shakespeare comedy.
This production will now compete in the all-British Columbia final festival in Victoria,
May 31 to June 3.

BEST ACTRESS
Moira McColl received the best actress award for her
"Mrs. Dowey" in "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals." This was the second time Miss Mc-Coll had won such an award for the same part, having played it during her Esquimalt
High School student career.
Best supporting actress was Vanessa Lax who played
"Doto" in Victoria Theatre Guild's "A Phoenix Too Frequent."

Only other award made was for best visual production. This went to Victoria Theatre Guild for the last named play.
BAD CHOICE
Principal reason for withholding male actor awards was that choice of plays had been bad, offering little opportunity to the actors and that in one or two cases roles had been miscast.

Mr. Orchard particularly mentioned John Martin in "A Phoenix Too Frequent" as being undoubtedly a capable actor but in an entirely wrong part.

Also honorably mentioned were Bob Aylward, John Dreaan and David Shearer.

BEYOND TALENTS
Four of the six plays seen during the festival were not

Jaycee Rodeo Won By Vic High Student

Graham Graves, 629 Niagara, a Victoria High School student, won the Victoria Jaycees' teenage safe driving rodeo on Saturday.

More than 40 young people, including eight girls, tested their driving skills on the tricky course which consisted of a series of four tests.

These were: straight driving, forward and backwards;
weaving in close limits;
smooth stopping and parallel parking. Second one was the most difficult with cars going through a line of barrels placed annoyingly close to a pair of guard rails.

STRANGE CARS
All contestants started equal — that is in cars they had never laid eyes on before. The vehicles were supplied by local dealers.

Runner-up was Grant Mac-Farlane, 2836 Murray Drive, who finished in the same spot a year ago and was the winner in 1959. Eric Forsberg, 1436 Gladstone, was third.

For the first time the rodeo contained a special competition for girls. Winner was Georgina Haydon, 16, 691 Wilson, an Esquimalt High School girl who started driving only six months ago.

The competition was held at the B.C. Electric bus depot, Garbally Road, and was judged by a seven-man panel made up of representatives of the provincial motor vehicles branch,
B.C. Electric and city police.

Graves will now go on to represent Victoria at the provincial finals in New Westminster in June.

worthy. Mr. Orchard, stated, but all, because they presented extreme difficulties of one sort or another, were beyond the talents of the actors.

"If amateur actors are to meet the challenge of other forms of entertainment today, they must seek technical knowledge of their art," the adjudicator stressed.

Two plays were presented and adjudicated before the final summing up and presentation of awards.

"Merry Wives" By Mary Nellie,
Presented by St. Luke's Players.
Jodie Margaret Kirkwood
Madeleine Barbara Grant
Simon Sven Cedarquist
Nancy Mintie Vernon
Mrs. Jardine Blossom Johnston
Directed by Dorothea House.

This play in itself had been a distinct liability, Mr. Orchard felt.
It was much too confused.
It should have been an atmospheric piece but no atmosphere was written in by the author.
However, something had been achieved by the cast, particularly Blossom Johnston and Margaret Kirkwood.

"A Phoenix Too Frequent" By Christopher Fry. Presented by Victoria Theatre Guild.
Doto Vanessa Lax
Dynamene Elizabeth Mayne
Tegues-Chromis John Martin
Directed by Phyllis Dalmeida.

Here was a play beautifully written, pungent and witty, full of airy poetry. But its counterpoint of the pathetic and the comic had not come across. The poetry had been very largely missed, Mr. Orchard considered.

It was a very challenging play, a good choice, but it had been miscast in two out of the three roles.

TIT FOR TAT

One good kick deserves another, and Jocko Conlan and Los Angeles coach Leo Durocher took turns kicking ships during fourth-inning rhabarb in National League game Sunday at Los Angeles. Leo was ejected from game with Pittsburgh, won by Dodgers. See story below.

CONLAN KICKS BACK . . . ARGUMENT OVER FOUL BALL

Leo Hasn't Changed

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Leo Durocher is in trouble again today, but this time they are calling him Leo the Toe instead of Leo the Lip.

Leo proved once again Sunday that you can't win an argument with an umpire when he got into a shin-kick duel with Jocko Conlan, who, like Durocher, seems to have a low boiling point. Durocher kicked Conlan at least once in the shins and the umpire held his own with counter-kicks. Durocher joined Dodgers as a coach this season after a five-year absence from baseball.

The beef started when Jocko — umpiring behind the plate in the Pittsburgh Pirates-Dodger game — called foul on a pop fly by Dodger first baseman Norm Larker in the fourth inning. Manager Walt Alston led a contingent of Dodgers from the dugout to protest. Comparative quiet had been restored when Conlan walked over to dugout and thumbed Durocher out of the game.

Conlan said Leo threw a towel out of the dugout. Then Durocher, after he knew he was out of the game, walked out, he said, to find out why Conlan was ejecting him and after they jawed a bit Durocher, about three feet from the umpire, kicked dirt in his direction.

TIT FOR TAT

Most press box observers believed Durocher made no physical contact with Conlan on that first kick. But Conlan indicated he believed otherwise. He hauled off with a smart kick that connected with Durocher's right shin. Durocher countered with a kick to Conlan's right shin. National League president Warren Giles will be given full reports on the incident and will decide the penalty against Durocher — there is sure to be a fine at least or a possible suspension.

Calgary's defending champions, Mike Pyke and Mrs. Alma Gibb, head the qualifying field for the 31st annual Empress Golf tournament which opened today.

Ladies' qualifying round was at Uplands Golf Club, while the men qualified at Victoria Golf Club.

Last year Pike downed John Poyen of Calgary and Mrs. Gibb beat Mrs. E. Trulson of Seattle in the finals.

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP)

Mike Souchak broke par for the fourth day in a row Sunday with a two-under 69 that gave him a 276 total and clinched the $22,500 Greater Greensboro Open golf tournament by seven shots over runner-up Sam Snead.

Souchak, who plays out of Grossinger, N.Y., cruised around the front nine of the 7,000-yard Sedgefield Country Club course with a three-under-par 32 to put him far ahead of the field to wrap it up early.

The victory was worth $3,200.

Snead, defending champion, finished with 71 to win $2,100. Billy Maxwell faltered to a finishing 75 for third place at 284 and won $1,650.

Vancouver's Stan Leonard and Charlie Sifford, Negro pro from Los Angeles, tied for fourth place with 285s. Each won $1,300.

Leonard's card was 74-69-69-73-285.

Evcoes Trim United In Exhibition Play

Victoria hasn't been able to get into the provincial soccer's trophy room very often, but teams from the Capital City keep hammering on the door.

At Heywood Park Sunday Evcoes trimmed North Shore United of the Mainland League 5-2 in an exhibition game to partially revenge the Province Cup defeat of Kickers Saturday by Westminster Royals.

Currently occupying second place in its league, North Shore held Evcoes to a 2-2 score at half-time with Spencer Cowan collecting both goals for the visitors and

Columbus Trims Grandview Club

VANCOUVER — Columbus moved into the quarter-final round of the Province Cup soccer competition Sunday by trouncing Grandview Legion, 6-1.

Columbus centre-forward, Bobby Bundschicks, a recent arrival from Calgary, led the scoring parade with three goals.

On Saturday, St. Andrews Football Club and St. Andrews Athletic Club played to a 3-3 overtime deadlock in a cup match.

Totems Enjoy The Last Laugh

SEATTLE (CP) — Seattle Totems can be forgiven for chucking so uproariously today.

Totems were supposedly the "losers" in the run for third place with Vancouver Canucks. Canucks "won" on the last day of the Western Hockey League schedule and took on sixth-place Victoria Cougars in the playoffs.

The "losers" drew first-place Calgary Stampede.

Totems are enjoying the last laugh as a result of Sunday's 2-1 victory over the Stamps.

Seattle's five-game conquest in the best-of-seven series gives Totems a berth in the league final against Vancouver — still struggling — or Portland.

Tommy McVie gave Totems a 1-0 lead in the second period and Marc Boileau made it 2-0 after less than two minutes of the third period.

Wally Hergesheimer got one Calgary goal back but a persistent attack for the remainder of the game failed to make any impression on the high-flying Totems.

Roaring Welcome Waiting for Twins

By Associated Press

Wait until Minnesota Twins see Minnesota. The precocious Twins haven't even seen their new home yet but they're sniffling the heady air of first place in the American League standings.

Bob Allison, an accepted slugger, and Zoilo Versalles, supposedly a glove man, boosted the Twins into the lead with home runs in Sunday's double victory over Baltimore Orioles. Thus the Twins were assured of a raucous welcome home Friday afternoon.

Allison drove in seven runs with a grand-slam homer and

Royals Best? Ask Kickers

Royals 3, Kickers 1

New Westminster Royals are working on a remarkable soccer streak and as far as Victoria Kickers are concerned the string could go on and on.

Kings of Canadian soccer last year and currently unbeaten in 19 successive matches, the Royals had 1,100 fans at Royal Athletic Park Saturday believing they are still the best booters in the Dominion.

They should also have convinced Kickers of the same fact, although they only posted a 3-1 victory over the Vancouver Island champions in a quarterfinal Province Cup match.

Despite the closeness of the score, the Royals clearly demonstrated their superiority and the difference could easily have been two or three goals greater.

KICKERS LEAD

Kickers gave it a fighting try and got away to an early lead, but they couldn't match the Royal City crew over the route. Royals, working with precision and power, started slowly and gradually took command.

Once they pulled even, the Royals never appeared in danger, keeping Kickers off balance with fine ball control and brisk passing. In the second half, the only question seemed to be how many shots the calm and confident mainlanders might deposit in the Victoria net.

Kickers jumped ahead with

Kiwanis Keeps Record Shining

The glossy soccer record of Nanaimo Southend Kiwanis, almost tarnished a week ago, is as spick, and glistening as ever today.

The Kiwanis kids stepped into this season's minor soccer battles with the record of never having been defeated in Island or provincial playoffs since the club was formed as a Division VI side several years ago.

Victoria's Britannia Legion almost wrecked the skein in the Division II Vancouver Island final April 8 at Nanaimo, but the Southenders scraped through with a 1-1 deadlock.

LEGION BLANKED

In a replay of the final Sunday at Macdonald Park, Kiwanis went to work and polished up the record as good as new, carving out a 3-0 triumph over the Legion crew to advance into the B.C. playoff at Vancouver.

SUE DROPS DOUBLES

AIX-EN-PROVENCE, France (AP)—Mimi Arnold of Redwood City, Calif., and Elizabeth Starkie of England gained the semi-final round of women's doubles in the Aix-en-Provence tennis tourney Saturday, defeating Susan Butt of Victoria and Eleanor Dodge of Montreal, 6-1, 5-7, 6-3.

Flutterby Edged By Front-Runner

Mr. Consistency upset Alberta Ranches' favored Flutterby and won the $60,100 California Derby by a neck Saturday at Golden Gate Fields in Albany, Calif.

Coupled with his better-regarded stablemate, Gay Landing, Mr. Consistency set the pace most of the way, losing the lead only a short time on the back stretch when Song Man forged ahead.

Gay Landing took third, 1 1/4 lengths behind Flutterby, in the field of seven three-year-olds racing in the final prep for the Kentucky Derby May 6.

Mr. Consistency and Gay Landing are owned by Oklahoma oil man Travis M. Kerr, giving him a two-horse threat for the Derby.

At New York's Aqueduct Saturday, Hitting Away won the secondary feature after

In Sunday's only other minor soccer tussle, Heaneys romped to a 5-0 victory over Colwood Pharmacy in the Lower Island Junior and Juvenile Soccer Association's Division I knockout cup final.

Ken Hall scored twice and Ray St. Denis, Bill Munro and Dwayne Peverett added single tallies for Heaneys.

Victoria Optimists racked up an important Division V triumph Saturday.

Optimists defeated Saanich Employees 2-1 to collect the league title, knockout cup championship and lower island crown, all at stake in the one match.

Curt Clarke and Ray Birtwhistle tallied for Optimists and Buck Show replied for Saanich.

V.I. BRIEFS

More Safety On Cranes Asked by Jury

TOPINO—A coroner's jury hearing evidence into the death of crane operator Harvey Wingen, 34, on March 19, recommended a thorough investigation of the equipment on which he was working when he died.

The tragedy occurred when a log-loading crane owned by B.C. Forest Products Ltd. toppled from its barge into the water, carrying the operator down with it.

Verdict was of accidental death caused by head injuries. Jury suggested the investigation in order that corrective measures can be taken. It also recommended additional safety measures be incorporated into similar cranes for the protection of operators.

DUNCAN—Representatives of Cowichan Indian Band and North Cowichan council acclaimed as successful the first joint meeting of the two organizations.

Chief Louise Underwood and three of her band councillors met with Reeve Don Morton and three members of the municipal council in the municipal hall here.

They agreed on maintenance of certain roads in the Cowichan reserve by municipal works crews and appointment of a joint committee on speed and direction signs, and expressed a desire for a joint fire protection scheme as soon as equipment is available.

COBBLE HILL—George Hahn, Social Credit candidate in the Esquimalt-Saanich federal by-election, will speak at a meeting tonight in St. John's parish hall, starting at 8:15.

His subject will be "Canada's Position in International Affairs."

Canon Christopher J. Loat, 48, formerly of Ladysmith, died of a heart attack Sunday in St. Catharines, Ont., where he had been rector of St. Thomas Anglican Church for 13 years.

Born in Vancouver, Canon Loat was graduated from the University of B.C. in 1937. He served in Vancouver and on Vancouver Island before going to Ontario.

MAY 6 VOTE SET ON SEWER BYLAW

NORTH COWICHAN—A vote will be held here May 6 on bylaws to approve borrowing $258,000 for two sewer systems.

A. YandeCasteyen, municipal clerk, will be returning officer.

Municipal council has given both bylaws three readings, and now the voters' approval is required to start work on the systems.

Public meetings will be held in Duncan Credit Union Hall to discuss the sewer bylaws in detail. Municipal engineer, municipal treasurer, and members of the council will act as a panel to answer questions on financial, engineering, and health aspects of the systems.

Already opposition to the systems has been voiced by Cowichan Fish and Game Club, which claims the systems, which will discharge into Somers and Holmes Creeks, will be harmful to fish life and health.

Sidney Man Named Jersey Show Judge

SIDNEY—George Aylard, 27, Wains Road dairy farmer and well-known exhibitor of Jersey cattle, will be judge at the Lower Mainland Jersey Parish Show at Cloverdale Saturday.

It will be his first major judging assignment.

Son of Arthur Aylard, whose Jersey herd has won considerable acclaim, he was a 4-H member as a youth, and was awarded his bachelor of agriculture degree at the University of B.C.

TAKING OVER

He worked some time for the federal government, and now he and his brother are taking over operation of the farm.

B.C. annual Jersey field day will be held June 17 on Vancouver Island.

Stevenson Picked By Plowers

DUNCAN—Archie Stevenson, Cowichan Station, was named by the Cowichan Plowing Match committee as its delegate to the Canada Plowing Council, which will meet in the fall in Ontario during the Canadian plowing championship.

It has been arranged that the B.C. delegate to the council will be from Vancouver Island one year and from the Fraser Valley the following year. Harold German, Chilliwack, was the 1960 delegate.

Financial statement of the committee, read at the final meeting of the season by Mrs. Joan Westwick, secretary-treasurer, showed a balance of $340 on hand.

'Mischief' Charge Faces Driver

PORT ALBERNI—Robert William Sloan, local longshoreman, has been charged with committing a public mischief, and will appear in police court April 18 for a preliminary hearing.

According to the charge, Sloan gave the RCMP false information that his car had been stolen from the Alberni Athletic Hall parking lot March 18.

The same night the vehicle had been involved in an accident in which it had crashed into a utility pole, which in turn caused a short circuit in the B.C. Power Commission substation on Stamp Avenue.

As a result, portions of the district were without power. By the time police arrived at the scene the driver had disappeared.

Sloan made his first court appearance Friday before Magistrate W. E. MacLeod, and elected for a trial by a judge. He was released on his own recognizance.

Youbou Man Elected

Wilmer H. Gold, Youbou, was elected in New Westminster as Grand Factor of the Grand Post, Native Sons of British Columbia.

Retiring Grand Factor is A. C. C. Loat, of Victoria. Other officers from Vancouver Island are W. C. Jones, Ladysmith, grand vice-factor, and Jack Hinkman, Nanaimo, grand senior guide.

Highway-Dock Link Set For This Year at Nanaimo

NANAIMO—An extensive plan to link the Trans-Canada Highway with the Black Ball Ferry dock will be undertaken this year by the provincial highways department.

It will involve widening of Stewart Avenue and removing several hundred yards of earth to take the road out to a full 66 feet in width.

Eventually a store and several houses will have to be either moved or taken down, and many bends in the winding, two-lane road along the waterfront will be eliminated. Plan for this year calls for widening the road as far as Cypress Street. Balance of the work will be done later.

The plan ties in with plans for development of Newcastle Island as a provincial park.

NEW BRIDGE

The program depends on a bridge linking the city with the island, and most preferred site at present is at the foot of Cypress Street. Rock and earth taken from the Stewart Avenue work could be used on a causeway leading to the bridge.

In addition to serving the ferry and the proposed park bridge, Stewart Avenue now gives access to the largest section of the pleasure boating trade here and a considerable industrial area.

SOLUTION WEDNESDAY

IT HAPPENED LAST NIGHT

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—"I'm not a pretty boy... I'm not exactly a clean-cut All-American type," Yul Brynner remarked the other day.

"As Cecil B. DeMille said once when I had my nose torn off, 'Thank God, nothing can happen to your face that has not happened to it already.'"

"And so," he said, "I play a lot of strange characters in a lot of strange lands."

He was explaining why it is necessary for him to live abroad and he was sitting in the bar of the Hotel Meurice in Paris, which is across the Rue de Rivoli from the Garden of Tuileries, as he spoke. It seemed to be in order now that there has been an outcry against movie stars running off to Europe to escape taxes.

"Really," he said, slipping

Radioman Gets Liberal Post

OTTAWA (CP)—Radio executive Keith Davey, 35, of Toronto, was named Friday night as executive director of the National Liberal Federation.

In this new position, Mr. Davey will be in charge of the Liberal central office here under Senator John J. Connelly, president of the federation, directing "all phases of an accelerated wide-ranging program of activities with special emphasis on organization."

Mr. Davey is president of the Toronto and Yorks Liberal Association and since 1954 had been sales manager of radio station CKFH in Toronto, a position he has vacated, said a party statement.

YUL BRYNNER
... "not pretty"

some tea, "all my life has been here. I speak French better than I do English... at 12, I was earning my living here in Paris as a guitarist..."

UNSALARIED

And "Mr. Brine-rr" (as the hotel people pronounced his name) reeled off places he's visited lately in his peripatetic career as actor and unsalaried special consultant to the UN's High Commissioner for Refugees.

"Greece, Spain, Mexico, Hong Kong... I jumped over to Damascus for a day to look at some oil land..."

"My wife and I have an apartment in Lausanne, and I see my son Rocky, every week... oh yes, I flew to the States for a couple of days."

LOVES FLYING

"I love flying," Brynner nodded. "It's phenomenal what you can do now."

"I leave London at 11 a.m., arrive in New York at 1.30 and have lunch with my business manager, who's come out to Idlewild to meet me, take off at 3.30 and am in California in time for drinks at the Beverly Hills Hotel."

Furthermore, he said, "I feel very secure flying. All you have to do is look at the statistics and you feel secure."

Brynner said it's very simple why so many pictures are done abroad—"people have travelled too much to accept fake backgrounds."

TIME TO GO

Forty-five now, Brynner, who was born in Japan to a Swiss-Mongolian father and a Central European mother, was reared in Peking. Just a year ago, after splitting up with Virginia Gilmore, he married Doris Kleiner, a Parish fashion director. And as we were talking there in Paris, she arrived after quite enough time for our talk, and said, "Darling, it's time to go..."

Quite a well organized couple, I'd say.

"DON'T PRINT THAT"

Anna Marie Albergotti had the panics fearing "Carnival" had been "oversold" by advance raves... Two foreign female stars are proving it is not only men who want partners half their age... A red-haired beauty well known in the Jet Set took the sleeping pill way out—same as her young ex-husband did... and thus hangs quite a mystery.

Jeff Chandler was notified his film, "The Plunderers," was banned in Sweden, wasn't told the reason. He says, "Wouldn't it be something if the title means something censored in Swedish?"... Jerry Lewis' "Ladies' Man," opens with this note: "The picture you are about to see is not true. Only the names have been changed, because our lawyers worry a lot."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Joe E. Lewis, playing the 2,000-seat Latin Casino in Camden, N.J., writes: "If I make good here I'll play the Yankees in the Stadium."

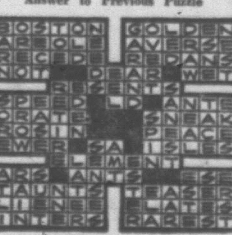

EARL'S PEARLS: Middle age is the time of life when, after one night out, you need two nights in.

Ozzie Nelson's son David, will do his trapeze act at carnivals this summer, and Harriet Nelson sighs, "Oh, well, I guess he's safer up there than on the freeway in a sports car." That's earl, brother.

Hotelmen Rap Cluster Lights

A bitter counter-attack on would-be cluster light savers was launched Saturday by the city's hotelmen.

N. W. Renard, president of the Victoria Hotel Association, called the clusters a traffic hazard, invitation to crime and outmoded tourist attraction.

Mr. Renard said a year ago the organization wrote council supporting modern lights and contending they had been proven effective in reducing crime by as much as 80 per cent. But the city did not even acknowledge the letter, he said. "What should have preference?" he asked in renewing the attack on the clusters.

WHICH QUESTION?

"Should it be a question of the loss of even one person's life on our poorly lit downtown streets, or so-called beautification of the city?"

Mr. Renard said despite Mayor Percy Scurren's opposition to removal of cluster lights, they have been replaced with mercury luminaires in the 700 Block, Yates Street, where Scurren's, Ltd., is located.

Some of our members feel that if we are going to keep the cluster lights, then let us take down the mercury lights on Yates and replace them with the same old off-and-on clusters that the rest of us have," said Mr. Renard. "We can at least have uniformity throughout the city."

FIRST VICTORIA JAYCEE for several years to hold the office, Brian Small has been elected president of junior chambers in the Vancouver Island-Powell River district. He was elected by acclamation at a district meeting in Nanaimo, Sunday. Mr. Small is a vice-president of the Victoria Junior Chamber. Another Victoria Jaycee vice-president, Eric Charman, won the district speaking contest and Lorne Tomlinson, also of Victoria, took the novice speaking title. Mr. Charman will now try for the provincial title at Penticton in June.

POLICE HOLDING CAR IN HIT-RUN ACCIDENT

Police identification experts are going over a 1950 Mercury sedan in connection with a hit-and-run accident that sent a 15-year-old messenger boy to hospital with serious injuries last Thursday.

After an area-wide search and appeal to the public for help, police seized the car Thursday night and impounded it.

Although there were at least two witnesses known to police, there may have been others and these are still sought for further information, police say.

The boy was treated for head injuries and after rapid improvement was discharged from St. Joseph's Hospital Friday.

He had been riding his bike home from work Tuesday night when struck from behind by a car that sped away from the Esquimalt Road scene without stopping.

Portugal Sends Bullets

LUANDA, Angola (Reuters) — Troops and ammunition flowed into this Portuguese West Africa colony by sea and air today as the government attempted to curb a growing revolt in the northern section of the territory.

There were fresh reports of rebel attacks on communities in the north and counter-attacks by Portuguese air force planes.

The Lusitania news agency said planes strafed a band of rebels in the northern Angola village of Bmbe Sunday, causing heavy casualties.

The air attack came after the rebels ambushed an army patrol by digging a ditch across the road and opening fire from the jungle.

The news agency said the attackers were beaten off and suffered casualties. Several European and African soldiers were slightly wounded.

He said rebels attacked Lunga village Thursday "as if they were demon possessed, dancing and singing and shouting that the bullets of the whites did not kill."

"There were women and children among the attackers equally crazed by drugs."

1/2 AWAKE Nights 1/2 ASLEEP Days..

Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. They toss and turn in bed, then are dull and listless during the day. When kidneys slow down wastes and excess acids stay in the system. Disturbed rest, tired feeling and backache often follow. If you don't rest well at night—if you feel dull in the daytime—use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Then you feel better—rest better—work better. You can depend on Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Does your bank really help you save money?

Of course it does. Every bank in Canada offers you a Savings Account service. No matter what bank you visit, the Savings Account system is operated the same way.

So why should you choose Toronto-Dominion over any other bank?

The answer is quite simple. It's the happy combination of the service and the people who provide it for you, that makes all the difference.

Our tellers are the FRIENDLIEST you'll find

Victorians' Money Goes Begging

Part of a vast fortune in unclaimed stocks and securities awaits at least four people who once called Victoria their home.

City detectives have been asked by an American "skip-tracing" firm to help locate the quartet whose last known addresses may be as much as 35 years old.

The four are, or were, owners of stock certificates that have lain unclaimed for years.

If the owners have since died, then their heirs are entitled to the benefits.

$17 MILLION

The Tracers Company of America, 515 Madison Ave., New York 22, N.Y., claims there are 25,000 missing stockholders sought in the U.S. and Canada who are entitled to more than $17,000,000 in assets held by banks, trustees and corporations anxious to pay the owners.

The firm claims to have a check on the status of any U.S. or Canadian security issued since the American civil war one hundred years ago.

Anyone with knowledge of the following people is asked to contact the company in New York:

Mary J. Briggs, last known address at 407 Milne, Bridget MacKinnon, 553 Hillside, Marion G. Conoley, Lake Hill P.O.; Kathleen Maud Ward, 2052 Granite.

TRAFFIC FINES

In Colwood RCMP Court Friday:

Quarter Cab Co. Ltd., 708 Johnson Street, $25 and $3 costs for operating a taxi without a proper licence plate.

Wakeman-Trimble Const. Ltd., 2116 Government, $25 and $3 costs for operating a truck without a proper licence plate.

Gordon John Ltd., 2790 Kingswood, $15 and $3 costs, operating a vehicle without a signal device.

Denis J. Weldon, 28 Milwood Road, $35 and $3 costs for careless driving.

Long-Time Worker For Charity Dies

Many Victorians attended the funeral service at St. Mary's Church on Saturday of Miss Marian Pitts, a member of one of the city's oldest pioneer families.

She was the daughter of the late Sidney J. Pitts, who arrived here from England in the first days of the Cariboo Gold Rush and became a leading figure in the business of Vancouver Island and the mainland.

Miss Pitts was born in Victoria and lived here all her life. In her younger days she was a brilliant tennis player, winning many championships for this city and for British Columbia. On the outbreak of the First World War she turned her activities entirely to war work.

She was a life member of the Canadian Red Cross and had headed its visiting committee at the Veterans' Hospital since its inception.

She was also a charter member of Gonzales Chapter, IODE, and held the position of treasurer for more than 25 years. Her many charitable works included the Salvation Army canteen and the bazaars of St. Mary's Church.

The funeral service was conducted by Archdeacon Nunns. Miss Pitts is survived by one sister, Mrs. Macdowall, and two brothers, Arthur C. S. Pitts and Clarence H. Pitts, both residents of Victoria.

ELIJAH MUHAMMAD ... 'righteous will rule'

Muslims Seek Own U.S. Area For Negroes

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Surrounded by bodyguards, the leader of the Negro "Muslim" movement in the United States held what he called his first press conference Friday and asked for a separate piece of the country, just for Negroes.

If the government doesn't agree to that, said 63-year-old Elijah Muhammad, "the government should ship us back to where we came from."

He said he spoke for some 200,000 Muslims and predicted virtually all of the 20,000,000 American Negroes would be members of the sect by 1970.

Muhammad — who said he was a worshipper of Allah, also worshipped by Mohammedans — called the meeting to "dispell slanderous statements against me and my followers in the various presses and news items."

Among things he denied:

1. That Muslims teach black supremacy "we're teaching that the righteous people will rule," he said.
2. That Muslims favor violent overthrow of the government.
3. That they never attacked police — "the police attack us and then accuse us of attacking them."

CHICAGO (AP) — A crippling spring snowstorm, sweeping out of the northern plains with all the fury of a mid-winter blockbuster, staggered the mid-western U.S. today.

The heavy wet snow, whipped by strong winds, smothered spring with a blanket of white from the Dakotas across the north central region.

The storm, which started in some areas Saturday night, increased with intensity Sunday. Fresh snow measured up to more than one and one-half feet in northern Minnesota. Drifts piled up to 10 feet in some areas.

At least 18 deaths were attributed to the stormy weather, mostly in traffic accidents. Record snowfalls for the date were reported in many areas. Freezing weather added to the discomfort.

Thousands of cars and motorists were stranded. Major and arterial roads were blocked. Schools in many areas were closed in Minnesota and Illinois.

Driving conditions were extremely hazardous in central and northern parts of the Great Lakes region and sections of Ohio valley.

Major highways in the eastern two-thirds of Minnesota were blocked. Some 20 inches of snow was reported in Duluth and in the Iron range district.

PEARSON:

UN Action On Suez Fell Short

MONTREAL (CP) — Opposition Leader Lester B. Pearson said Sunday night it is a "tragedy" the United Nations intervention in the 1956 Suez crisis was not carried further to bring about a political solution for the area.

"How I wish we had taken advantage of that opportunity at that time," he told an Israeli bond rally marking the 13th birthday of Israel.

He also called it a tragedy that moderate Arab leaders at the time of Israel's formation in 1948 did not accept the value of a free, progressive Israel in the Middle East.

"I must confess to a feeling of frustration and sadness at the inability of Arab opinion to accept Israel as a full, living and lasting community in the society of nations, helping to form a bridge between the West and the Arab world."

Mr. Pearson, who was given an engraved plaque in recognition of his steadfast friendship toward Israel, was the architect of the plan that sent a UN emergency force into the Middle East at the time of the Suez crisis.

Although no official statement ever has been made, it is generally accepted that this act led to his winning the Nobel Peace Prize in 1957.

Turning to the trial in Jerusalem of Adolph Eichmann on charges of murdering millions of Jews, Mr. Pearson said the trial "is being conducted in the finest traditions of the rule of law and will result in even-handed justice being dispensed."

Prospector's a Hybrid, But Oh, How She Grew!

By HAL JONES
The motor vessel Prospector, now loading 6,300 metric tons of wheat at Victoria grain elevator, could almost be described as a "crazy mixed up ship."

The large midsection of the ship is on its maiden voyage although Prospector was actually built 10 years ago. Reason for this is that extensive rebuilding has just been carried out in Japan.

The ship was literally cut into three pieces and the bow and stern sections floated away to join up with a completely new 360-foot cargo section.

The old bow and stern were rested firmly on the bottom of the dock while the new midsection was floated in. This was then lowered to link up with its partner's.

The new section was 62 feet longer than its predecessor and seven feet higher, thus eliminating the focal point and giving a clear run of deck forward of the superstructure.

It also broadened the beam by four feet to 64 feet and increased the ship's gross tonnage from 5,446 to 7,484. The ship is now 510 feet long.

The new section was prefabricated and waiting for Prospector when she arrived in Kobe. The rebuilding operation took just 63 days.

Prospector was originally built in Newcastle-on-Tyne, England. She is owned by ALCOA — Aluminum Company of America — but is registered under the Liberian flag. The ship carries nine officers — all Norwegian — and a crew of 25 West Indians.

From Victoria she will go to the Dominican Republic, said Captain Halvdan Nilsen, her master for the past two years.

After delivering the grain, Prospector will switch to the Bauxite trade continuing a shuttle service between Dutch Guiana and Trinidad in the West Indies, he said.

I LOVE CLUSTER LIGHTS BECAUSE

But be sure to HURRY, HURRY, HURRY. It may already be too late.

And because of the HURRY, HURRY, HURRY, I haven't yet lined up a prize for the contest.

You can be sure, though, it will be something enlightening.

Just to show you how easy it is, here are few samples of how to enter the contest:

I LOVE CLUSTER LIGHTS because they remind me of grapes and grapes remind me of olives and olives remind me of martinis and I just LOVE martinis.

I LOVE CLUSTER LIGHTS because I love to take my girl for a walk downtown and its better if I can't see her ugly mug.

I LOVE CLUSTER LIGHTS because my mother always warned me against wine, women, song, and bright lights so I have always avoided bright lights.

I LOVE CLUSTER LIGHTS, because they are real ideal for taking a dim view of.

Second Look Due After 150 Calls

Ald. Geoffrey Edgelow today said he will ask for a second look at recommended replacement of the cluster lights in view of a flood of protests.

He said he would bring the subject up as chairman of public works committee when it meets Tuesday morning. Replacement of the downtown clusters by modern mercury lights was recommended last week by a public works subcommittee headed by Ald. J. L. W. McLean.

150 CALLS

"I've had more than 150 calls over the weekend — at home, the office and everywhere I went — protesting removal of the clusters. Only three or four people supported the mercury lights," Ald. Edgelow said.

"In view of the reaction, I'll bring the matter up tomorrow to see if the committee thinks the recommendation should be changed at all."

Mayor Percy Scurrell, who voted against removal of the clusters, said he also was inundated with protests against the proposal over the weekend.

"I answered the phone so many times Saturday my arm got tired and now there's a big pile of letters on my desk."

The mayor estimated he had been given more than 200 unsolicited protests against the measure and only two in favor of mercury lights.

"The cluster lights represent more than a sentiment—they are a symbol of a way of life that Victorians do not want abandoned," the mayor has decided.

Escaped Man Nabbed By Rookie Policeman

Narcotics suspect James Walter Butterworth, 23, of Vancouver, pleaded guilty in city police court today to escaping from city jail Saturday morning.

The subject of an 8½-hour manhunt in Greater Victoria after he ran away from the police charge office, Butterworth was spotted by a rookie policeman as he jaywalked at Yates and Douglas at 6:15 p.m.

He had spent the day hiding in a sawdust bin in the lower business-waterfront section of the city. He did not know exactly where.

ROOKIE PRAISED

Cons. Ken Anthony, a member of the department less than two years, was credited by Deputy Chief Harry Mercer for alert police work.

Meanwhile, Butterworth was remanded to Wednesday. He said he wished to make a statement to the court then.

The man was held in the city lockup for Sidney RCMP.

Saanich Boy 'Poor' After Hitting Car

Condition of seven-year-old Mark Wakefield, 1920 San Juan, was "poor" at Royal Jubilee Hospital today, unchanged since his tricycle was in collision with a car in front of his home at 4:35 p.m. Saturday.

The boy has head, chest and back injuries, a broken right arm and possible broken left arm.

Saanich police said the "trike" was ridden down an inclined driveway across the street, into the side of a car driven by Arthur Ernest Parsons, 1906 Grandview, who said his vision was obstructed by bushes.

Insanity Plea Wins Dismissal In Assault Case

Charge against a 24-year-old Chinese of assaulting a man with a butcher knife last January was dismissed after a trial in city police court today when the defence showed the accused was insane at the time.

Joe Yin Kee, of 915 Caladonia, was charged with assault causing bodily harm to Sam Tim, 554 Fisgard.

Gerald S. Andrews, chief of the surveys and mapping division, B.C. Lands and Forests Department, will be guest speaker at the annual general meeting of the United Nations Association, Victoria branch, to be held in the public library tonight at 8. He will give an illustrated talk on a visit to Scandinavia.

'Report in Month' Mayor Instructs New Parking Body

A crash program to solve the city's off-street parking problems began today with appointment by Mayor Percy Scurrell of an advisory parking committee.

The eight-man group — all leading community figures — has the job of finding out where and how many parking garages should be built downtown to meet the next five years' needs.

URGENT PROBLEM

"I want the committee to start work this week and come back to council with a recommendation within a month," said the mayor. "This is an urgent problem and we've got to get cracking on it."

Appointed to the committee were: William Mearns, transportation and power utility executive; Aubrey Kent, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Allan Wilson, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce; L. C. Dinning, chairman of the cheque clearing house; Robert Phipps, manager of a trust company; Ernest Peden, chairman of the Downtown Businessmen's Association; Roger Strickland, hotel operator, and W. G. Gauld, labor representative.

Include Public In Car Park Mayor Urges

Mayor Percy Scurrell today supported Saanich Reeve Chatterton's plan to ask the federal government to build a parking garage downtown for its hundreds of employees.

MORE NEEDED

"I appreciate what he's trying to do but I think we need more than just parking for federal civil servants to solve that parking problem," said the mayor.

Mayor Scurrell himself had pressed last fall for construction of a federal parking facility near the Post Office which could be leased to the city.

Parking would be provided for civil servants and the public, with the city using the revenue to pay off the lease-purchase arrangement.

HOPES FOR ACTION

"That way we would be using the federal government's credit, but it would not have cost the government anything for the facility," said the mayor.

18 Gardens Open For Big Festival

A total of 18 private gardens featuring one of the largest plant collections in the Pacific Northwest will be open to the public during the annual three-day Victoria Garden Festival, starting May 4.

The festival is sponsored by the Victoria Horticultural Society.

Some of the gardens selected for display include collections of mature coniferous trees, unusual types of hollies, rhododendrons, rarely seen weeping blue spruce, various specimens of maples and rock and alpine plants.

The gardens also rank high in architectural design.

As in other years, VHS officials expect the festival to attract visitors from garden clubs of Vancouver Island, the B.C. mainland and Washington.

Thursday, May 4: — Mr. and Mrs. Harold Husband, 3150 Rutland; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wallace, 3175 Beach Drive; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Edgell, 3230 Beach Drive; Mrs. S. L. McMullen, 1800 Tyndall; Mr. and Mrs. C. Dowman, 4021 Shelbourne.

Friday: — Col. and Mrs. V. G. Robert, 2670 Queenswood Drive; Mr. and Mrs. F. Anson Firth, 2676 Queenswood Drive; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. R. Brown, 3045 Beach Drive; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Todd, 451 Newport Avenue; Mr. and Mrs. N. Abkhazi, 1964 Fairfield Road.

Saturday: — Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Ashier, 1233 Palmer Road; Mr. and Mrs. N. Pavelic, Ardmore Drive; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hammill, 8337 Patricia Bay Highway; Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Ewens, 8156 Wallace Drive.

In addition, the gardens of Dr. Thos. McPherson, 956 Esquimalt Road, and Mrs. A. F. Stelck, 1214 Old Esquimalt Road, will be open every day during the regular visit-

MUTUAL CONGRATULATIONS are frequently heard during the Victoria Music Festival but seldom more warmly than between these two charming young ladies. Far apart in age, they are nevertheless firm friends, having shared the stage in a local opera production a few months ago. Carole James, winner of the sacred solo, low voice class, and Jocelyn Abbott, who won her first festival class, seven years and under, compare certificates.

96 Young People In Music Festival

By AUDREY JOHNSON

Ninety-six young boys and girls, from six-year-olds to advanced teens, were on hand this morning as the Greater Victoria Music Festival opened its two-week sessions simultaneously in St. Andrew's Kirk and Woodsworth Halls.

Piano classes at Woodsworth Hall, 721 Courtney Street, had three long sessions, presided over by adjudicator Denis Murdoch of the Royal Academy of Music, London, England.

In St. Andrew's auditorium, Timothy Turner, British choral and vocal expert, heard teen-aged high, medium and low voices and a group of 26 little girls, 11 years and under.

Girls' high voice winner was Barbara Oldhall with 88 marks; sacred solo, low voice, was Carole James with 81. Frances Scott, without competition in the medium voice class, was awarded a mark of 84.

PEARKES SEND-OFF

Junior vocal and piano classes were continuing this afternoon but tonight the festival will be given its official send-off by Lieutenant-Governor George R. Pearkes officiating.

The evening session takes place in St. Andrew's auditorium with two fine choral classes and two senior piano classes making up the program. Starting at 8 sharp, the Musical Art Madrigal Singers will compete with the Senior Ladies' Ensemble of First United Church in an unconduted small ensemble class.

OLD RIVALRY

Traditional rivalry of the Melstersingers versus the Arion Club Male Choir will conclude the program.

In between two unconduted piano classes will feature Karen Dickson playing the first movement of Mozart's Sonata in B-flat (K 315) and Philip Adamson in the Performer's Sonata Class, playing the first movement of a Beethoven work.

Tuesday there will be a switch of centres, with piano sessions being heard at St. Andrew's and vocal at Woodsworth Hall in the morning and again reversing in the afternoon.

Tuesday highlights include piano performers' Bach class in the morning, male and female oratorio solos in the afternoon, vocalists' concert group and adult choral classes in the evening.

ASK THE TIMES

Q. Which was the first American coin to bear the word "cent"? J. L.

A. The Washington Unity cent of 1783.

Q. When was the first steam locomotive used in Canada? O. E.

A. The first steam locomotive went into service in 1836 on the Champlain and St. Lawrence Railway. Canada was the first country in the world to use a road diesel in 1929.

Anyone wishing a question answered is invited to send the problem along to The Times, addressed to "Ask the Times" Editor. Questions and answers will be published daily. All questions should deal with matters of fact and be of general interest. The Times does not undertake to solve conundrums or legal problems. Nor will it attempt to put a value on old coins, stamps or antiques. These should be submitted to a dealer.

Warm Welcome Everywhere For Chamber Goodwillers

"A wonderful reception everywhere," was how Walter Dodsworth, chairman of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, tourist industry group, described the organization's 10-day goodwill tour to San Francisco.

The group returned Sunday night after visiting more than a dozen centres during the bus trip and familiarizing tourist industry organizations with the vacation facilities and attractions of Vancouver Island.

The group of 28 Victorians concentrated mainly on putting across the easy accessibility of the island, Mr. Dodsworth said, and made sure that the new B.C. government ferry service became better known.

While in Sacramento, California's state capital, the group was received by Governor Pat Brown and visited the state legislature where they were recognized from the floor and welcomed to the state.

The visitors were astonished to hear California tourist people chiding them for dropping the "Follow the Birds to Victoria" slogan in favor of the "Treasure Island" theme.

"They seemed to feel we were just throwing away a wonderful tourist slogan," Mr. Dodsworth said.

New Stretchie Pyjamas
Ideal for Growing Babies

By PENNY SAVER

If you have a baby in the family you'll be interested in new line of pyjamas that come in soft terry towelling that has been treated so that pyjamas will stretch to fit a small infant or a 12-month-old child.

Fashioned just like a cover-all, they have dome-fastened openings from foot to neckline, long cuffed sleeves and neat Peter Pan collars, edged in white rick-rack braid.

They're easily washed in warm soapy water and will dry in practically no time at all. Pyjamas come in either pink, blue, yellow or white and are selling at $3.98. They'd make thrilling baby-shower gifts!

Another gift item that's bound to please a new mother are attractive flannelette sheets that measure 30 inches by 40 inches and are priced at $1.29.

All have borders of pastel stripes and well-bound seams. They are so cosy that many customers are buying them to use as cot blankets. Available in either white, pink, blue or yellow, they're specially treated to resist germs and odors.

Planning to take a trip soon? If you are, you'll want a pair of the corduroy pique slippers that are on "special" at 79 cents. They pack in the minimum of space and are trimmed with gold bows and edging. Slippers come in shades of gold, blue, navy, green or red and in sizes small, medium and large.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Interest in Others Will Attract Them to You

What makes us remember one woman and forget another? What makes one woman sought after and another ignored?

First let us consider some of the more illusive factors. While the ingredients of charm and magnetism are far too subtle for complete analysis, there are some characteristics which are clear to the observer.

In the first place, just plain friendliness is a first class magnet. If we are truly interested in what they say, what they are doing, their ideas and problems and hopes, and we will be thoughtful of them.

Also, enthusiasm not only makes life exciting for us but makes us exciting to others. This vitality and aliveness lifts the lives of those we meet out of the rut of daily living for a moment. There are so many factors in this classification that it would be impossible to list all of them in one column.

Equally important, let us never forget that "window dressing" or "packaging" also has a great effect on others. Certainly, advertisers know this and take full advantage of it. Our personal appearance not only has a tremendous impact on us but on those we meet. The way we look, the way we stand and walk, the way we dress and groom ourselves, are parts of the first impression others get of us. A woman understands herself if she does not take her personal appearance seriously.

DIET MENUS
Knowing that overweight is one of the most prevalent beauty problems, I have been bringing you my Nine-Day Reducing Diet for the past seven days. Here are the menus for tomorrow:

Breakfast—One egg, boiled or poached; 1 thin dry slice of wholewheat toast, black coffee, 1 glass skimmed milk.
Luncheon—One portion salmon, celery sticks, ½ cup steamed carrots, ½ grapefruit.

Dinner—Minute or club steak (small), ½ cup string beans, ½ cup squash, 1 glass skimmed milk, orange slices.
If you would like to lose from five to 10 pounds in nine days and missed some of these menus or would like to have the complete diet in a small booklet, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

THE BETTER HALF By Bob Barnes

"Maybe I ought to pack a picnic basket for you to take to bed each night."

APPLE NUT LOAF

One-half cup instant milk (dry form), 1½ cups sifted all-purpose flour, 2 tps baking powder, ½ cup shortening (soft), ¼ tsp salt, 1 tsp vanilla, 2 eggs, ½ cup water, 1 cup finely-cut apples (unpeeled), ¼ cup coarsely cut nuts.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. (for glass pan, 325 degrees F.). Sift instant milk, flour and baking powder into a piece of waxed paper and let stand until needed. In a 3-quart bowl mix soft shortening, sugar, salt and vanilla. Add eggs and mix until smooth. Add water, apples and nuts and mix until smooth. Add flour mixture, stirring only until blended.

Turn batter into well-greased loaf pan (9x5x3). Bake near centre of oven 50 to 60 minutes. Take bread from pan and cool thoroughly.

DEAR ABBY

The Storm Rages On!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR READERS: Recently I stated that those hideous, uncomfortable, dangerous, pointed-toe shoes that have been forced on the modern woman in the name of "fashion" were designed by men who hated women. Furthermore, I invited readers who felt as I did to send their letters of complaint to this column. I promised to send them to the National Shoe Manufacturers' Association, hoping to provoke them into giving us sensible, comfortable, beautiful footwear again. Printed below as a few of the thousands of letters I received.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 94-year-old retired shoe wholesaler and, in my opinion, the shoe manufacturers are losing their marbles. I have seen many styles come and go, but never have I seen such impossible shoes for women! They are destroying their feet. I cannot for the life of me understand how the shoe people stay in business.

W.A.W.

DEAR ABBY: When a woman didn't like the sack dress, she could whip up one more to her liking. But she can't make her own shoes. It does no good to buy them a size larger (as shoe salesmen suggest) because the weight of her body thrusts her foot forward, and it is ultimately forced into that treacherous little triangle.

When a woman suffers from corns, bunions and ingrown toenails, her general health is impaired.

CONCERNED

DEAR ABBY: I wonder how many women have tried to kneel in church with those pointed-toe shoes and sharp, steel-tipped heels?

DEAR ABBY: You may as well save your energy because you will get nowhere in your campaign to rid the market of those ugly, uncomfortable atrocities they are selling for ladies' shoes. The reason is this: Ninety-five per cent of the women would wear rings through their noses if they read it was in style.

MAN ON THE SIDELINES.

DEAR ABBY: I could just hug your neck for starting a crusade for sensible shoes for women. I have fought with shoe salesmen all the way from sea to sea, and they tell me how "comfortable" the new shoes are. I would like to give them all a good swift kick with that "comfortable" pointed toe.

NOT BUYING.

DEAR ABBY: I am with you 100% in your crusade against those horrible shoes for women. I recently saw a bride catch the thin, steel-tipped heel of her shoe in her lace wedding gown while she was cutting the wedding cake, and she almost cut her finger off.

M.W.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO THE QUEEN?

Is she still the shy, self-effacing girl that ascended the throne ten years ago? Now has Prince Philip influenced her? For the facts, read a leading court commentator's analysis in this week's

STAR WEEKLY THE NATION'S FINEST 15c WORTH

DEAR ABBY: Have you ever noticed how a man's shoe is shaped? Just like a man's foot, of course. Why, then, must ladies' shoes look as though they are ready for the ski slopes? Nobody hates the new ladies' shoes more than I, and I refuse to buy shoes until the manufacturers regain their senses.

STUBBORN.

DEAR ABBY: You deserve a gold medal for trying to get decent footwear for women. I am 72 and have lived through the pointed-shoe era of the "Gay Nineties." My feet were badly crippled from the shoes I wore then. And now when I see the same thing happening to by beautiful teen-aged granddaughters, I want to cry.

GRANNY.

DEAR ABBY: I am deeply moved by your diatribes on the issue of pointed-toe shoes. I am a designer-retailer of women's shoes and must assume my share of the responsibility for the diabolical machinations you accused us of. We are just trying to fit your feet, enhance your beauty and make an honest buck. Is this gratitude we get for such lofty motives? Let me say that when you women stop buying them, we will stop selling them.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

To remove the odor of onions or garlic from your hands before you go out for the evening, sprinkle baking soda on your hands, add a few drops of water, rub the paste in, then rinse.

A little water softener added to soapy water is a great help in cleaning white gloves. Dirt will float out if you soak gloves for 20 minutes.

How to Save Money on Rug Cleaning

The biggest saving in having your rug professionally cleaned is the saving of extra life your valuable rug will give. Only professional "deep cleaning" as done by the people at the CARPETOGIUM, 1314 Wharf B., will remove those deep down gritty particles that, day by day, are cutting your rug to pieces!

DEAR ABBY: Have you ever noticed how a man's shoe is shaped? Just like a man's foot, of course. Why, then, must ladies' shoes look as though they are ready for the ski slopes? Nobody hates the new ladies' shoes more than I, and I refuse to buy shoes until the manufacturers regain their senses.

STUBBORN.

DEAR ABBY: You deserve a gold medal for trying to get decent footwear for women. I am 72 and have lived through the pointed-shoe era of the "Gay Nineties." My feet were badly crippled from the shoes I wore then. And now when I see the same thing happening to by beautiful teen-aged granddaughters, I want to cry.

GRANNY.

DEAR ABBY: I am deeply moved by your diatribes on the issue of pointed-toe shoes. I am a designer-retailer of women's shoes and must assume my share of the responsibility for the diabolical machinations you accused us of. We are just trying to fit your feet, enhance your beauty and make an honest buck. Is this gratitude we get for such lofty motives? Let me say that when you women stop buying them, we will stop selling them.

HONEST SHOE MAN.

Yes, Abby will answer your letter personally if you write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Getting married? For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send 50c to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Victoria Tennis Player Swings More Than Racquet in Monaco

By SUSAN BUTT
Monte Carlo, Monaco
Champagne, roulette and perfume will be among my memories of Monte Carlo.

As soon as I arrived at the Monte Carlo Country Club to begin the European tennis circuit I was greeted by old friend, Allan Kendall, of Australia. He handed me my part in a show to be put on by players at the gala Thursday night champagne party and told me to have it memorized by the next day.

Alan was director of the show put on entirely by the tennis players with the help of the famed Casino Orchestra.

This party is held in the Casino Sporting Club and they say it is only rivalled by the party held during the French championships in Paris.

We performed and the orchestra played to the popping of champagne bottles throughout the evening.

Gambling in the great domed Casino appears to be the nightly activity of visitors to Monte Carlo. It was popular among the tennis players who were admitted to the premises free of charge.

Of Personal Interest

Alumnae Luncheon

Victoria members of the alumnae of St. George's School have been invited to the main hall to attend a "pot luck" luncheon at "Lone Rock Farm," Langley home of Mrs. Dorothy Hamilton. Alumnae president, Mrs. C. J. Walters, will receive guests, assisted by Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. A. C. Hutchinson. Serviteurs will be Mrs. S. Stephenson, Mrs. M. J. Madeley, Mrs. G. W. C. Henderson, Mrs. J. Glaspie, Mrs. E. Bendrodt, Mrs. R. D. Kendrick and Mrs. W. M. McCurdy. Luncheon for all old girls is next Saturday at 12 noon.

At B.C. House

Victorians who are travelling abroad at present and who have visited British Columbia House in the past 10 days included Miss Joan Winterburn, Miss A. A. Aylard and Miss G. M. Aylard, Mrs. Mildred Allen, Mrs. Arthur Walden and Mr. G. D. Tyson.

Visiting France

Mrs. Paul L. Bissley and her three children, Laurence, Marc and Jacqueline, left on a six-month holiday in France today. While there they will visit Mrs. Bissley's parents, M. and Mme. F. Fraissinet, of Marseilles, and friends and relatives there and in Paris and on the French Riviera. A former French citizen, Mrs. Bissley holds the Croix de Guerre, awarded for distinguished service in helping French civilians in No-Man's Land and assisting in their evacuation during the Second World War. The Bissleys now make their home on Wilmet Place.

For Miss Hunt

Pink and white streamers decorated an umbrella that contained gifts at a shower in honor of bride-elect Miss Lenora Hunt, in the Alder Street home of Mrs. B. Gilson. Formerly of Victoria, Miss Hunt now lives in Calgary and will marry Mr. E. Hansen of that city in this city on Saturday. Guests included Miss Hunt's mother, Mrs. C. Hunt; her grandmother, Mrs. W. Cooney, groom-elect's mother, Mrs. R. Hansen; Mrs. L. Fair, Mrs. O. H. Southron, Mrs. A. Beckerley, Mrs. D. Dmytruk, Mrs. M. MacDonald and Miss Jeannie Myers.

Linen Shower

Mrs. E. LeMaitre was hostess at a linen shower in her Graham Street home honoring her sister, Miss Irene Foot. Red roses en corsage were presented to the guest of honor and a pink and white model of a wedding cake contained gifts. Present were the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. C. Foot; Mrs. G. Smith, Mrs. F. Bosom, Mrs. F. Merryfield, Mrs. R. C. Midgley, Mrs. M. Moriarty, Mrs. E. Martin and the Misses Suzanne Buttrey, Kay McDonald and Flo Smith.

Royal Roads Chapter, IOOE, Wednesday at 8 p.m., home of Miss A. Norell, Apt. 2, 1159 Yates Street.

Surprisingly many find themselves ahead at the end of the week. I played roulette one evening according to a system devised by one of the American players. He had won the three previous nights. Needless to say, the evening I tried it, it didn't work. I have watched since.

The Casino, which looks more like a capitol building than a gambling den, is the crux of Monacan economy as well as the centre of high society.

It is owned jointly by Greek ship owner, Onassis, Prince Rainier III of Monaco and the Casino.

A cover charge must be paid before entering the first gambling area. Here "mini-mum" stakes are two new francs (40 cents). Marble floors, stately statues and oversized chandeliers form the background as all attention is focussed on gambling tables.

One can pass through this area into another. Here thick amber carpets take the place of marble floors and there is another charge. Stakes are now 50 new francs.

There is a third area of gambling which we were shown by one of the tournament officials. This is a smaller room off the second area where an exclusive membership gathers to gamble in peace. Participation is by invitation only and minimum stakes are 100,000 new francs.

Roulette is by far the most popular game. Some players win fantastic sums while others lose all.

The many doormen at the Casino are famous for never forgetting a face.

It is an unwritten law that if a customer should lose everything he owns at the Casino, and I am told this often happens, the Casino will pay his fare back to his homeland. It is understood that the customer will repay the house when he is able.

One story tells of an Englishman before the Second World War who lost all and was sent home. But he never repaid the house.

In 1949 he returned to Monte Carlo and was accosted by the doormen who recognized him and made him pay his debt.

Everyone here seems to wear perfume. I passed a very plump and very old peasant woman on the street the other day. She was dressed entirely in black and was ugly except that from her drifted the most beautiful floral scent.

When a group of us were sightseeing in the Cathedral of Monaco, a priest walked by us. We were surprised at the delightful trail of perfume he also left.

Excitement ran high at the club today with the arrival of Prince Rainier and Princess Grace (the former Grace Kelly) to watch the matches.

A member of their party was Cary Grant. Nobody knows what he's doing in Monte Carlo. But he's here. He glanced continuously at his watch and left with a blonde before the matches finished.

I noticed that the prince and princess elected to drink orange juice rather than champagne at intermission time.

Let that be a lesson to us all!

There is a third area of gambling which we were shown by one of the tournament officials. This is a smaller room off the second area where an exclusive membership gathers to gamble in peace. Participation is by invitation only and minimum stakes are 100,000 new francs.

Roulette is by far the most popular game. Some players win fantastic sums while others lose all.

The many doormen at the Casino are famous for never forgetting a face.

It is an unwritten law that

Everyone here seems to wear perfume. I passed a very plump and very old peasant woman on the street the other day. She was dressed entirely in black and was ugly except that from her drifted the most beautiful floral scent.

When a group of us were sightseeing in the Cathedral of Monaco, a priest walked by us. We were surprised at the delightful trail of perfume he also left.

Excitement ran high at the club today with the arrival of Prince Rainier and Princess Grace (the former Grace Kelly) to watch the matches.

I noticed that the prince and princess elected to drink orange juice rather than champagne at intermission time.

Let that be a lesson to us all!

Hostess

Mrs. J. M. Elliott entertained on Saturday at her home on King George Terrace, in honor of her future daughter-in-law, Miss Carole Slater, whose marriage to Mr. Brian Sabiston takes place on May 20. There were 40 guests.

Shampoo Guards Skin

Did you know that you can help keep skin clear by keeping your hair clean at all times? If your hair is oily or dandruff-infected, your skin can become irritated by contact with it. So shampoo two or three times a week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. de Bourcier, 2761 Dufferin Avenue, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Lou, to FO James Corner, RCAF, of Comox, B.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Corner of Pefferlaw, Ont. The wedding will take place on Saturday, May 6, in First Baptist Church at 2 p.m. with Rev. G. R. Easter officiating. (Miss de Bourcier's photo by Chevrons Studio, and Mr. Corner's by C. W. Silence.)

Frances Keifer Wed in Trenton

The bride's mother travelled to Trenton, Ont., to attend the wedding of Frances Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Keifer, 504 Linden Avenue, to Mervin Vincent Bezeau, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Bezeau, of Kitchener, Ont., in King Street United Church.

White satin roses centred white nylon and silver net bows that marked guest pews and the church was decorated with white chrysanthemums, gladioli and greenery. Rev. R. Irwin officiated. Harold Keifer gave his niece in marriage.

Entering the church to the strains of "Praise My Soul the King of Heaven," the bride wore a white satin brocade sheath with overskirt of white lace. Large white satin rosette held the shoulder-length veil. She carried a white Bible that had been used at the wedding of her three sisters, with white gardenias and stephanotis. Only jewelry was a strand of pearls.

ONE ATTENDANT

Scarlet overtones enhanced the beige embroidered sheath dress worn by the only attendant, Miss Glenna Sprague. Pressed scarlet tulips were on her beige net cap and scarlet roses in her bouquet.

W. Schmiedendorf, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man and the usher Vance Seaman, Toronto, cousin of the bride. Organist was Mrs. L. Kendall.

White and pink sugar roses topped a three-tier wedding cake that centred the head table at luncheon held in the church lounge after the ceremony. White candles in silver candelabra completed the decor. Vance Seaman proposed the toast to his cousin.

Telegrams from the bride's three sisters in Victoria, Mrs. R. Webster, Mrs. M. J. Bennett and Mrs. L. Nixon, were received.

Leaving on a honeymoon to Niagara Falls, the new Mrs. Bezeau donned a beige silk dress, Scotch mist brown Madelon coat and high-crowned beige straw hat, trimmed with brown velvet bow. Accessories were on tone.

Newlyweds will make their home at Trenton.

CHALLENGE TO WOMEN

TORONTO (CP) — A delegate to the Ontario Women's Liberal Association annual meeting last week called for more women to enter politics and the professions because "we can no longer hold to the theory that the male is more capable of meeting day-to-day problems of modern society."

Mrs. Wilma L. Allison of Brampton, chairman of the status of women committee, told some 175 delegates at the one-day meeting that women have come a long way since they received the vote, but there was still much to be done.

turned to look at Eichmann in the prisoner's dock and said:
"In this trial, we shall also encounter a new kind of killer, the kind that exercises his bloody craft behind a desk and only occasionally does the deed with his own hands."
"True, we know of only one incident in which Adolf Eichmann actually beat to death a Jewish boy, who had dared to steal fruit from a peach tree in the yard of his Budapest home."
"Nothing showed in Eichmann's face."
"We shall find Eichmann describing himself as a fastidious person, a 'white collar worker,' Hausner continued.
"To him, the decree of extermination was just another order to be executed."
"Yet he was the one who planned, initiated, and organized, who instructed others to spill this ocean of blood and to use all the means of murder, theft, and torture."

This is the heart of Israel's case against Eichmann.
Hausner said the Gestapo consciously worked to break the spirit of their victims and at the same time exploited those who retained the will to live to help carry out the murders.
The prosecutor said he had evidence of Gestapo orders saying that "hangings in concentration camps should be entrusted to other prisoners of the same nationality as those to be hanged and that the executioners should be given three cigarettes as wages."
On Eichmann's plea of innocence before the court, Hausner reported that he was as guilty as though Eichmann himself had knotted the hangman's noose, lashed the victims into the gas chambers, shot in the back and pushed into the open pit every single one of the millions who were slaughtered."

'... Monster of Insane Brutality'

Hausner spoke of the origins of Nazi Germany, of Adolf Hitler, of the race supremacy theories and of the Nuremberg laws which finally embodied them into Nazi statutes and official policy.
"I doubt whether in this trial we on our part will succeed in laying bare the roots of the evil," the attorney-general said.
"This task must remain the concern of historians, sociologists, authors and psychologists."
"But he asserted that Hitler and his crimes were no accidental transient phenomenon."
Eichmann listened intently as Hausner recalled the mid-1930s in Germany. Once or twice he rocked back and forth gently in his chair.
The chain of events in Germany that Hausner traced has often been spelled out before. But seldom has it been delineated with such passion. Hausner's voice rose at times to the point of a shout almost.

Fierce words bristled through Hausner's statement "Jew hatred... lustful eyes on Jewish property... blood libel... unclean lands... the basest passions... a monster of insane brutality... one who could trample on human beings as though they were insects... satanic aspects."
He listed the steps in Eichmann's swift rise to importance in the Gestapo, from a faceless file clerk in an office to the moment when he was placed in charge of what the Nazis called "the final solution of the Jewish problem."
This meant mass extermination.
Hausner said "Eichmann was the official executor of the extermination program, with enormous authority in the German Reich."
Later, as German armies spread across Europe, Eichmann's authority expanded correspondingly over a wider and wider area.

Eichmann Went Beyond His Orders

"In sum, he reached out to every corner to carry out the 'final solution,' using the methods he found most efficient... and always with one goal in mind—to get hold of the Jews and to send them to camps in the east."
"It need not surprise us, therefore, that on Jewish matters he gave orders to men of higher rank than his own."
Eichmann's highest rank in the Gestapo was lieutenant-colonel.
The prosecutor said a "confused and blinded world" had not been alarmed by the fate of the Jews, and did not realize that the persecution of the Jews was only the beginning of the onslaught.
He said Eichmann went into training as early as 1934 at Dachau, where he "learned to beat prisoners."
Eichmann's second sponsor, Hausner said, was "the infamous Julius Streicher," a leader of the Nazi anti-Semitic movement who was executed by the Allies at the close of the war.
At the end of 1939, Eichmann was in Berlin, Hausner related. There he was given the order to deport the enormous Jewish population from areas of Poland and Czechoslovakia.

"In March, 1941, we meet Eichmann as head of the IV-4B department of the Gestapo. This was the office he continued to hold until the tragic end of European Jewry," Hausner said.
Eichmann was directly accused of being the official executor of the German extermination program in all Nazi occupied countries.
Hausner said he would prove to the court that Eichmann went far beyond his orders and carried out functions for which he had been given no orders at all.
In 1944, Hausner said Eichmann organized the export of Jews from Hungary "and made certain the journey would be a death march."
Hausner then turned to a detailed examination of the Nazi "final solution of the Jewish problem," allegedly brought to fruition by Eichmann.
The prosecutor related the history of the program, moving from forced deportation to "total extermination".

'HUMANE THING TO DO'

Children Boo, Cry As Raccoon Killed

Expediency won over compassion when a game officer shot a "misplaced" raccoon off the top of a high-tension power pole in Saanich Saturday night.
A crowd of neighborhood children were heart-broken all the same.
Saanich police said B.C. Electric reported the 'coon atop a pole at Richmond and Allenby at 5:40 p.m. and feared it might electrocute itself, at the same time short-circuiting high-voltage lines.

No one wanted to risk further accident or possibly a severe clawing by climbing up and bringing the venturesome animal down by force.
Like cats, cornered 'coons can be vicious.
Insp. Robert Sinclair administered the fatal shot through the head after an hour of pondering the predicament with police and line crewmen.
MIGHT HAVE STARVED
"It was the only humane thing to do," said the inspector, adding that the animal might have starved if it managed to stay free of the hot wires.
Meanwhile, the children fully expected the 'coon to be rescued.
When the officer took aim with his .22 rifle, they booed. When the animal dropped to earth, lifeless, they cried. Some were still sobbing when they went home.

Trustees Tackle Two Difficult Problems Tonight

Greater Victoria School Board meets two thorny problems tonight as a result of the Chant royal commission.
Trustees will have to discuss what changes should be made now to conform with new legislation implementing parts of the Chant report.
Main problem involves the mechanics of returning Grade 7 to the elementary level.
Same issue also will have a direct effect on the second problem—timing of the proposed new school building by-law which originally was intended to go before ratepayers next month.
Because of the major shifts in the school system created by legislation this year, trustees probably will postpone a firm decision on both issues until all ramifications are clarified.

Wanderers Finally Win Own Tourney

Oak Bay Wanderers have finally won the seven-a-side rugby trophy they put up for the annual competition.
The sponsoring club beat James Bay Athletic Association 12-6 in the final game Saturday afternoon at Royal Roads on 'unconverted' tries by Bob Hutchison, Maurice Preece, Bill Murray and Walter Tate.
In the junior division, Forey Angus led Shawnigan Lake Boys' School to a 14-3 win over Wanderers intermediates in the final game.
The former Edmonton star scored five tries and 15 converts for a 45-point afternoon.

NELSON (CP) — A protest against the "luxuries of life" sparked a demonstration and stripping by two-dozen members of the radical Sons of Freedom Doukhobor sect Sunday.

Detonator Explodes in Man's Face

VANCOUVER (CP) — An Army demolition expert who removed a dynamite bomb from an Anglican church in Wynndel at the weekend said Sunday he narrowly escaped injury when the detonator exploded in his face.

Sgt. Maj. Ralph Spencer said in an interview the time fuse on the bomb had expired and the slightest vibration would have set the 20-stick device off.
The detonator was inches from his face when it went off.
"It was one of the most ticklish jobs I have ever handled," he said.
Sgt. Spencer said it was fortunate the bomb was discovered before any services were held in the church.
Because of the delicate mechanism of the bomb, the slightest movement could have "blown 30 to 40 people out of the church."
The bomb was removed Saturday after a terrorist blast Friday blew out the wall of a grain elevator.
It was discovered by RCMP checking buildings following the elevator blast.

an estimated $10,000 damage when they set 11 automobiles on fire at Krestova, 20 miles west of here.
The vehicles belonged to the demonstrators. RCMP said they are not considering charges, but they are conducting an investigation.

About two-dozen women were reported to have stripped and chanted hymns around the blazing vehicles. (Every one was clothed when the RCMP arrived.)
Police were greeted by Freedomites carrying placards in English and Russian, saying "Christ has come... down with seduction, luxury and war."

MOSCOW (Reuters)—Pravda disclosed Sunday a major purge in the central Asian republic of Tadzhikistan where both the Communist party leader and the premier have been expelled from the party for faking agriculture reports.

HUNGARY RESOLUTION TONED DOWN

UNITED NATIONS (AP) — The United States, Canada and 19 other countries proposed Saturday night that the UN General Assembly deplore Soviet and Hungarian disregard of its resolutions for freedom in Hungary.

But in a resolution submitted to the assembly, they omitted any suggestions that it continue the assignment of Sir Leslie Munro of New Zealand as UN representative in Hungary.

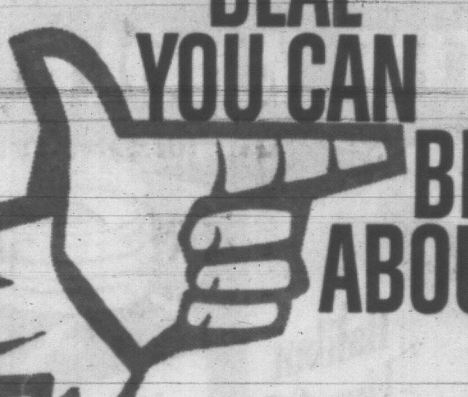

Munro, appointed Dec. 12, 1958, has tried in vain ever since to get officials of Hungary to let him come in and look around.

In its last resolution on Hungary, adopted Dec. 19, 1959, the assembly asked him to continue his efforts and called on Soviet and Hungarian officials to co-operate with him.
The new proposal would downgrade the whole Hungarian issue.

Adenauer Urges Strong U.S. Lead

WASHINGTON (AP) — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer Sunday urged the United States to take a stronger lead in the Atlantic alliance.

The U.S. should take this lead as the strongest member of the 15-nation defence alliance, Adenauer said in a filmed television interview.

But such leadership, the chancellor declared, does not fit in with a tripartite directorate in NATO—the idea of President Charles de Gaulle of France.

Adenauer said such a directorate of the big three powers would be impossible.

Nevertheless, he added, a thorough study is under way to find means for making the alliance more effective.

Adenauer was asked whether he was "pleased or displeased" that the German people now are involved while Adolf Eichmann is tried in Israel "on those dark pages of history."

IT HAS TO BE

"It is not pleasant, but it has to be," the chancellor answered quietly, and added:

"One should not deny anything, and not beauty anything... and one should not deny the guilt."

He said also that Eichmann is not a German citizen and therefore his country has no obligations to him.

Asked about what Germany does to teach its youth about what happened during the Hitler era and whether it is true that no such education is going on, he said:

"This might have been true for some time, but it is different now."

MOTHER, BABE KILLED HIT-RUN DRIVER HELD

HANEY (CP) — A mother and her infant daughter, killed when struck by a car while the woman was pushing a baby carriage along the Lougheed Highway, near Vancouver Sunday have been identified.

Dead are Mrs. Francis Graham and her eight-month-old daughter Linda.

A passing motorist told police the woman was struck by a half-ton truck which did not stop.

The driver has been arrested and charged in connection with the incident.

'Trial of the Destroyer' Must Go On, Rules Court

DOUGLAS' STAND REVEALED HERE?

(Times Ottawa Bureau)
OTTAWA — Premier T. C. Douglas is expected to make a formal declaration of his intention to seek the leadership of the New Party when he speaks at a $10 a plate dinner meeting in the Esquimalt-Saanich constituency during the byelection campaign next month.
The dinner meeting is being arranged to be held in Victoria. During the meeting May 6 Premier Douglas will speak on behalf of New Party candidate Glen Hamilton in Esquimalt-Saanich riding. His announcement that he will be a candidate for the leadership of the New Party is expected to add a spark to the New Party campaign in that constituency.

Pacific Power Grid Envisaged

A vast network of hydro power schemes stretching from Alaska to California was envisaged today by B.C.'s Lands and Forests Minister Ray Williston.
Addressing a Pacific Northwest Trade Association conference in Portland, Mr. Williston made a big pitch for export of Canadian power from both Columbia and Peace Rivers, as a vital part of his overall plan.
"There can be no logical reason for Canada to continue the artificial boundary barrier to the export of hydro energy," he said.
Mr. Williston's international grid would serve the Pacific Northwest and California.
The big need for more power will be after the mid-1970s, he said, but planning, engineering and construction on new power sources should begin as soon as possible. Power blocks would be "shunted" south to the U.S. markets instead of being transmitted directly.

An international export interchange system between the various power sites would handle the "shunted" power. It would come from the Co-

TOP COMIC STRIP

'Juliet Jones' in Today's Times

"The Heart of Juliet Jones," one of the most popular comic strips in North America, starts in the Times today.
Beautifully drawn by Stan Drake—who uses his wife as model for the central character—"Juliet Jones" tells a story of life, romance, and small-town political intrigues which has captivated millions of newspaper readers.

Eager to accept a foreign exchange student, Mayor Juliet volunteered to board a Greek girl, Vasily-Papadopoulos. Vasily turned out to be a handsome young man. The Jones made him feel at home, successfully changed his style of dress... and now face a new problem. Vasily has been invited to a school dance and for him, dancing is just another North American mystery.

To see how he tries to conquer the problem, begin reading "The Heart of Juliet Jones" today on page 14.

'We Won't Intervene' —Rusk

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today "there is no secret about the sympathy of the American people" for the forces seeking to overthrow Cuban premier Fidel Castro.

But he emphasized that "there is not and will not be any intervention" in Cuba by United States forces.

Rusk also said the United States is determined "to do all we possibly can to insure that Americans do not participate in these actions in Cuba."

Rusk said the landings were not mounted from U.S. soil. And he rejected Castro's charge that the United States was behind the invasion.

'NOT INDIFFERENT'

The secretary made it clear, however, that the United States is "not indifferent to intrusion into this hemisphere by the Communist conspiracy."

"This conspiracy," he said, "declared its intentions to destroy free institutions in all parts of the world."

He was referring to the manifesto issued in Moscow last December by representatives of Communist parties in more than 80 countries. The Communists called for increased action to spread their doctrine and control in Latin America, Africa and other areas.

Rusk would not predict what action the United States might take if Russia intervenes on Castro's side.

In a statement read at his news conference, Rusk said, in part:

"The American people are entitled to know whether we are intervening in Cuba or intend to do so in the future. The answer to that question is no. What happens in Cuba is for the Cuban people themselves to decide."

Laos Cease-Fire 'Out' for Moment

(Times News Service)

LONDON — The Soviet Union rejected some details of the Western proposal for a cease-fire in Laos but kept the door open for further negotiations, a foreign office spokesman said today.

The spokesman declined to give the substance of the note, delivered Sunday in Moscow, but made clear that Britain and the Soviet Union won't be joining right away in calling for a cease-fire to suspend the fighting between the Western-backed Laotian government of Prince Boun Oum and the leftist Pathet Lao guerrillas.

The spokesman said further contacts with the Soviet government would be required and that meanwhile Britain is consulting with the United States, France and Commonwealth countries.

"Until we have completed discussions with our allies and come to some conclusions," the spokesman said, "we can give no indication as to our views on how the note is to be regarded."

Diplomatic sources in Moscow said that Russia's reply indicated a qualified acceptance of an immediate cease-fire appeal, but no agreement has yet been reached.

The sources said the Soviets still do not see eye-to-eye with the West on a timetable aimed at bringing a final Laotian settlement.

This is the closest the Pathet Lao forces are reported to have come to cutting the nation in two—a factor that could have significance when and if a cease-fire line is drawn.

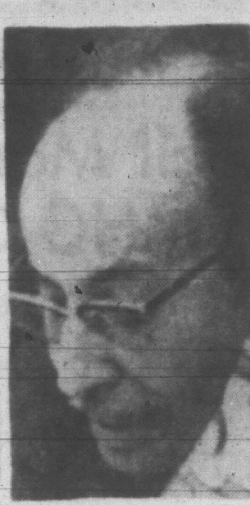

The Pathet Lao attack came Sunday and broke a Laotian New Year holiday lull in the fighting that had lasted for a week.

Chan said one letter was signed by Immigration Minister Fairclough and that Withers said his wife is a second cousin of the minister.

Withers said later he received the $200 but denied saying Mrs. Fairclough is related to his wife. He said he intended to try to make an appointment with the minister on Chan's behalf.

In Hamilton, Mrs. Fairclough said she has never known a man named John Withers.

'Launched In Florida' Roa Claims

UNITED NATIONS (CP)—

Cuba charged today that the invasion of Cuba was launched from Florida and Guatemala with the backing of the United States. The United States replied with an immediate denial.

Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa told the UN political committee that the United States must assume the full responsibility for the dawn landings.

Chief U.S. delegate Adlai Stevenson asserted "these charges are totally false and I deny them categorically."

"The United States has not committed aggression against Cuba and no aggression has been launched from any part of the United States," he said.

He added, however, that the American people sympathize with "Cubans who do not stop being Cubans because they could not stand to live in Cuba" under the regime of Fidel Castro.

WILL FIGHT

Roa declared that Cuba will fight to the finish against the invaders.

The Cuban foreign minister concluded his emotional de-

(Times News Services)

A strong force of rebel troops invaded Cuba today in an attempt to overthrow Premier Fidel Castro.

By parachute and landing craft, the assault force swarmed ashore only 90 miles from Havana and established a beachhead.

Reports indicated the invaders had advanced 25 miles inland. Castro proclaimed 'a state of national emergency. He took personal command of defence operations.

The invaders struck in the swampy area around Bahia de Cochinos (the bay of pigs) shortly after midnight.

Another force was reported to have landed in Oriente Province in eastern Cuba Saturday night.

5,000 MEN
Sources of the Cuban revolutionary council estimated 5,000 anti-Castro troops had gone into action within the last 48 hours.

President Jose Miro Cardona of the Cuban Revolutionary Council, with headquarters in the U.S., said the assault was the beginning of the battle "to liberate our homeland from the despotic rule of Fidel Castro and rid Cuba of international cruelty and oppression."

Miro Cardona's proclamation of revolt was broadcast to all Cubans by a revolutionary radio station on a Caribbean island.

The Castro regime immediately cut off communications to and from Cuba, and there was little information on the progress of the fighting.

HEAVY CASUALTIES

But one broadcast indicated the casualties were heavy. Castro himself underscored the gravity of the events in statements read over the country's biggest radio station after a 12-hour silence.

The bearded premier told the people of Cuba that invasion troops were attacking various points of national territory in the south of Las Villas province, with the aid of aircraft and warships.

He called for action against "those who are surprised committing... sabotage, shooting or assassination attempts"—indicating that an uprising within Cuba had accompanied the invasion.

Internationally-known commentator, Mr. Walter Lippmann, on page 4 of The Times today tells of his exclusive interview with Nikita Khrushchev—which even included a game of badminton. It is the first of three articles.

The official Chinese Communist newspaper People's Daily claimed that Saturday's bombing raids against Cuba were part of a "series of schemes engineered by the United States to intervene in Cuba."

'YOU ARE ONE HELL OF AN ICEBREAKER...'

PORT ARTHUR (CP)—The icebreaker Alexander Henry worked today to free 11 ships trapped in an offshore icefield.

The vessels became trapped during the weekend in the approaches to the lakehead harbors when high winds pushed ice into the channels.

The Alexander Henry drew sharp criticism from ship captains Sunday after getting stuck herself in attempts to aid the others.

One ship's captain radioed to the $3,000,000 government icebreaker: "You are one hell of an icebreaker you are. Can't even get yourself out of the ice."

'I'LL GET YOU OFF HOOK' CHINESE DEPORTEE TOLD

TORONTO (CP)—Richard Chan, under a deportation order, says he was approached last week by a man who said he could get him "off the hook" for $500.

Chan, 29-year-old partner in a plastics firm here, said that on the advice of his lawyer, he paid $300 on account to John Wesley Withers, 67, described as a retired provincial civil servant.

Chan said Withers produced a Progressive Conservative Association membership card and letters purporting to concern cases he had handled in which deportation had been averted.

Chan said one letter was signed by Immigration Minister Fairclough and that Withers said his wife is a second cousin of the minister.

Withers said later he received the $200 but denied saying Mrs. Fairclough is related to his wife. He said he intended to try to make an appointment with the minister on Chan's behalf.

In Hamilton, Mrs. Fairclough said she has never known a man named John Withers.

Andrew Brewin, counsel for Chan, said he telephoned Dr. George Davidson, deputy immigration minister, and suggested an investigation.

Brewin, who had previously planned to see Mrs. Fairclough today to make an appeal for Chan on compassionate grounds, said he will ask again for an investigation when he sees her.

His direct appeal to the minister is being made because the courts have refused to revoke the deportation order against Chan.

The young businessman has admitted leaving Hong Kong with an illegally-acquired British passport. He came to Canada 23 months ago, ostensibly on a visit.

GIANT STEP — With the "Gyron" above, Ford stylists are attempting to leap far into the automobile's future. This car-of-tomorrow was unveiled at the New York auto show. It attempts to get the auto away from its basic shape, a rectangular object with a wheel at each corner, clearly a mere refinement of the carriage which preceded it. The "Gyron" has two central wheels in tandem with two outrigger wheels in the rear which can be retracted when the proper speed is attained. A gyroscope would maintain stability. The steering wheel is gone. Instead, there is a small power steering dial. Brake and accelerator are still on the floor. Other innovations: infra-red "snooper" ray gun to make driving safer in poor visibility; a 10-button computer which would allow an elementary programming for long trips; contoured seats to support head and upper part of legs. The car is not operable.

BANK MERGER APPROVED

TORONTO (CP) — Shareholders of the Canadian Bank of Commerce and the Imperial Bank of Canada Friday approved an amalgamation of the two institutions.

Application now will be made for the assent of the governor-in-council, and the merged bank is expected to come into being within six weeks.

It will be called the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce in English and Banque Canadienne Impériale de Commerce in French.

WEEK IN BUSINESS

Air Lines, Rails U.S. Sore Spots

By ROGER LANE

NEW YORK (AP) — Troubling news from transportation services blotted an otherwise brightening United States business picture last week.

First, the Association of American Railroads reported that U.S. Class 1 major lines ran $20,000,000 into the red last February.

A bleak report on the trunk airlines came from the Air Transport Association. It put 1960's net income at about $1,000,000 for a profit margin of about .06 of one per cent on $1,940,000,000 in operating revenues.

Stuart G. Tipton, association president, called the situation "dismal" and a "crisis."

But generally, pluses for the over-all U.S. economy supplied liberal balm for the rankling sore spots. The tone of improvement carried forward a strengthening upward trend of a month or more.

Word came of a 3.9-per-cent weekly gain in steel production, a lengthened average factory work week, a healthy decline in new car inventories and a pickup in retail sales in February.

HIT HISTORIC HIGH

The stock market bowed along to a historic high as measured by the Dow-Jones Industrial average before a reaction set in.

The government speeded up plans for April-June defence spending to $8,500,000,000, with an eye cocked to the economy-stimulating effects of the huge outlay.

Imports by the U.S. from abroad dipped to a 30-month low in February, the commerce department reported. This reflected favorably on the balance of payment problems.

There were some gloomy reports by corporations on first-quarter operating results — although cheer appeared even in this sector.

International Business Machines Corp. profits jumped nearly 40 per cent. American Telephone and Telegraph Co. said earnings were up slightly to a new high.

Pipe Laying Starts in June On B.C. Line

VANCOUVER (CP) — Pipe laying will start in June on the new crude oil pipeline that is to bring Peace River crude to Vancouver, Labor Minister Peterson said Friday night.

Speaking at the Canadian Welding Society's annual welding show at the B.C. Vocational Institute, Mr. Peterson said the $35,000,000 project is expected to give employment to about 1,000 persons and for the first time B.C. will be able to supply all the trained welders the job will require.

Many of the welders to be employed on the line would undoubtedly be institute graduates.

Closer Watch Considered Of Mainland Promoters

By GORDON BELL

Times Business Editor

Reopening of the Vancouver "Securities Act" office is still under active consideration by the attorney-general's department.

However, it is not connected with the increased licensing and registration fees for stock exchange firms and securities issuers announced Friday as a rumor published in Vancouver had it.

According to the Vancouver story the fees boost was to take care of the expense of a mainland office to keep a closer watch on the activities of the stock promoters operating there. The Vancouver office was closed in 1946.

Local brokers were not too happy about the increase in fees, naturally, but most conceded the rise was inevitable. The scale has remained the same since the early '30s and even the new scale is the lowest in western Canada and less than half that of Ontario or Quebec.

Sir Roy Dobson's report of the five months ended Dec. 31 for A. V. Roe Canada Ltd. was not very encouraging for long-suffering shareholders.

Avro's president stated net loss for the period was $3,889, boosted revenue to $995,854.

United Oils Ltd. annual report shows further acquisition of Home Oil Co. Ltd. stock during 1960 and United now owns about 36 per cent of the Home Class B voting shares.

United bought 32,800 A shares and 16,200 B shares at an average cost of $8.65 a share. This was the first acquisition of the non-voting A's for United but the B total now stands at 845,106.

United had increased gas and oil sales in 1960 which loss for the period was $3,889, boosted revenue to $995,854.

Reorganization of Canadian Fairbanks-Morse Co. Ltd. as a wholly Canadian concern is to be a costly business.

Annual report announced net loss $547,000 on 1960 operations compared with net profit of $218,216 in 1959.

Report says the loss was largely incurred in liquidating divisions losing money. Two divisions dropped were home appliances and electrical supplies but five new subsidiaries, including Skinner Scales Ltd. of Vancouver, were acquired.

Higher shipyard labor costs on the West Coast continue to place Burrard Dry Dock Co. Ltd. in a non-competitive position with eastern and foreign yards, according to the company's annual report, but a satisfactory volume of ship repair business continues to be placed.

Net income for Burrard in 1960 was $280,205, on a gross of $500,205 compared with $695,253 net and $1,385,253 in 1959.

Western oils began the week with new highs being reached at 11 a.m. and noon Monday, without any definite pattern being set up among the senior issues and with little trading. The group fell off as it continued into the week and failed to recover.

Gold was quiet with virtually little trading, although several favorable annual reports in the group were issued.

Senior base metals began the week in a frantic race to establish new highs and by Friday afternoon most had succeeded. Falconbridge, Hudson Bay, Nickel, Noranda, Sherritt-Gordon and Opemiska all reached the finish line, with coppers running a close second.

Uranium, however, were relatively quiet, with the exception of Lorado, which followed the lead it set two weeks ago and traded over 600,000 shares.

Manufacturing, banks and utilities were the best groups for the week with a heavy volume of trading in each segment.

Steels, refining oils and finance companies were generally mixed throughout the week, with Algoma and B.A. Oil both reaching new highs.

Construction, papers and liquors were down for the week, with Abitibi slipping to a new low.

TORONTO (CP) — L. G. Lumbers, vice-president and general manager of Canada Wire & Cable Co. Ltd., has been elected president of the company, succeeding O. W. Titus, who remains a director.

Mr. Lumbers was elected at a meeting of the board of directors following the company's annual meeting.

Expenses for the year totalled $1,241,771 and deficit, after deducting investment sale loss of $23,147 was $269,064, well down from 1959's deficit of $411,017.

Sun Publishing Co. Ltd. has announced a stock dividend on 37,500 preference shares at a par value of $1 to be allotted on the basis of one preference share for each 10 class-B shares.

Quarterly dividends of 16 1/2 cents on class A and 3 1/2 on class B will be payable June 15.

Eddy Paper Co. Ltd. proposes a three-for-one share split on the common which would also mean that each Class A convertible would be exchangeable for three common. Shareholders vote on the proposal April 28.

Annual report shows an increase in net income for 1960 of $133,919 for a total of $1,968,046.

This 7.3 per cent increase was accomplished despite the loss of revenue from Eddy's interest in Sidney Roofing which was sold to Macmillan, Bloedel and Powell River. Sidney Roofing returned $367,400 to Eddy Paper in 1959.

Earnings per share rose to $4.92 from $4.59 the previous year.

COMPACTS HELP

Ford Sales In Canada On Increase

TORONTO (CP) — Sales in Canada in the first three months of this year, as compared with the corresponding period last year, were reported today by Karl E. Scott, president, at the annual meeting of Ford Motor Company of Canada Ltd.

Unit sales of all products, including imports, were up about three per cent; sales of North American-type cars were up five per cent; and retail truck deliveries advanced some four per cent.

Ford's Falcon and Comet, Mr. Scott said, accounted for 44 per cent of total compact car sales in Canada for the first quarter.

"Nevertheless, similar operating factors persist in 1961 which caused net income after taxes in 1960 to decline 18 per cent from 1959."

ECONOMY SURGING

Among favorable factors Mr. Scott listed the following: Strong indications that the Canadian economy is beginning to regain its forward momentum; competition from European imported cars "appears to be easing"; North American-type cars, "led by the new compacts and strongly supported by low-priced standard models, are being re-affirmed as first choice in the Canadian automobile market"; Canadian consumer expenditures are likely to rise two or three per cent in 1961; money is "a bit easier"; and federal, provincial and municipal government expenditures are likely to be up five per cent this year.

Real Problem In Economic Tie With U.S.

CLEVELAND (CP) — Postmaster-General Hamilton said today that "a genuine problem" exists in the economic relations between Canada and the United States that must be faced by both countries.

He said that in 1959 Canada paid a total of some $5.6 billion dollars to the U.S. for goods, travel, dividends, freight and shipping while the United States paid Canada only $4.4 billion.

He told the Sales Executives Clubs of Cleveland, Ohio, that 1957 figures show that United States interests controlled 44 per cent of Canada's manufacturing, 71 per cent of petroleum and natural gas and 52 per cent of mining and smelting.

"Such a situation might be more easily understood if we were an underdeveloped, little industrialized nation with a low standard of living," Mr. Hamilton said.

$ EXCHANGE

VICTORIA — Banks buying U.S. cheques at 1 1/2 per cent discount. Buying cash at 1 1/2. Silver at 9 1/2 per cent. Selling cheques at 1 1/2 discount cash at 1 1/2.

MONTREAL (CP) — The U.S. dollar was at a discount of 1 1/2 per cent in terms of Canadian funds, the Bank of Montreal reported near noon today. Pound sterling $2.76 1/2.

NEW YORK (CP) — Canadian dollar at $1.01 in terms of U.S. funds. Pound sterling $2.76 1/2.

Winnipeg Gas Profits Jump

TORONTO (CP) — Greater Winnipeg Gas Company had net profit of $488,491 in 1960 compared with $37,496 in 1959.

G. P. Osler, president, said no provision for income taxes was made for 1960 and 1959 because tax losses are available to absorb income otherwise taxable for these years.

He expects that tax losses will not be fully absorbed until the end of 1963.

Mr. Osler said a modification of gas prices granted last year by the Manitoba public board resulted in much greater acceptance of gas by larger commercial users.

TODAY'S GRAIN PRICES

WINNIPEG (CP) — Moderate activity in flax trading had developed by the close of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today, although prices remained somewhat irregular.

The oats and barley markets continued light and domestic prices moved narrowly.

Firming trends in the local rye market were influenced by trends in Chicago rye.

Overnight export loadings of Canadian wheat: China 700,000 bushels, Japan 500,000, The Philippines 45,000 and the United Kingdom 40,000.

Lakehead prices for class two, IWA and domestic wheat all were unchanged from Friday.

Prospector's a Hybrid, But Oh, How She Grew!

By HAL JONES
The motor vessel Prospector, now loading 6,300 metric tons of wheat at Victoria grain elevator, could almost be described as a "crazy mixed up ship."

The large midsection of the ship is on its maiden voyage although Prospector was actually built 10 years ago. Reason for this is that extensive rebuilding has just been carried out in Japan.

The ship was literally cut into three pieces and the bow and stern sections floated away to join up with a completely new 360-foot cargo section.

The old bow and stern were rested firmly on the bottom of the dock while the new midsection was floated in. This was then lowered to link up with its partners.

The new section was 62 feet longer than its predecessor and seven feet higher, thus eliminating the fo'c'sle and giving a clear run of deck forward of the superstructure.

It also broadened the beam by four feet to 64 feet and increased the ship's gross tonnage from 5,446 to 7,784. The ship is now 510 feet long.

The new section was prefabricated and waiting for Prospector when she arrived in Kobe. The rebuilding operation took just 63 days.

Prospector was originally built in Newcastle-on-Tyne, England. She is owned by ALCOA — Aluminum Company of America — but is registered under the Liberian flag. The ship carries nine officers — all Norwegian — and a crew of 25 West Indians.

From Victoria she will go to the Dominican Republic, said Captain Halvdan Nilsen, her master for the past two years.

After delivering the grain, Prospector will switch to the Bauxite trade, continuing a shuttle service between Dutch Guiana and Trinidad in the West Indies, he said.

'Report in Month' Mayor Instructs New Parking Body

A crash program to solve the city's off-street parking problems began today with an appointment by Mayor Percy Scourrah of an advisory parking committee.

The eight-man group — all leading community figures — has the job of finding out where and how many parking garages should be built downtown to meet the next five years' needs.

URGENT PROBLEM

"I want the committee to start work this week and come back to council with a recommendation within a month," said the mayor. "This is an urgent problem and we've got to get cracking on it."

Appointed to the committee were: William Mearns, transportation and power utility executive; Aubrey Kent, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Allan Wilson, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce; I. C. Dinning, chairman of the cheque clearing house; Robert Phipps, manager of a trust company; Ernest Peden, chairman of the Downtown Businessmen's Association; Roger Strickland, hotel operator, and W. G. Gauld, labor representative.

Include Public In Car Park Mayor Urges

Mayor Percy Scourrah today supported Saanich Reeve Chatterton's plan to ask the federal government to build a parking garage downtown for its hundreds of employees.

MORE NEEDED

"I appreciate what he's trying to do but I think we need more than just parking for federal civil servants to solve that parking problem," said the mayor.

Mayor Scourrah himself had pressed last fall for construction of a federal parking facility near the Post Office which could be leased to the city. Parking would be provided for civil servants and the public, with the city using the revenue to pay off the lease-purchase arrangement.

HOPES FOR ACTION

"That way we would be using the federal government's credit, but it would not have cost the government anything for the facility," said the mayor.

MUTUAL CONGRATULATIONS are frequently heard during the Victoria Music Festival but seldom more warmly than between these two charming young ladies. Far apart in age, they are nevertheless firm friends, having shared the stage in a local opera production a few months ago. Carole James, winner of the sacred solo, low voice class, and Jocelyn Abbott who won her first festival class, seven years and under, compare certificates.

96 Young People In Music Festival

By AUDREY JOHNSON

Ninety-six young boys and girls, from six-year-olds to advanced teens, were on hand this morning as the Greater Victoria Music Festival opened its two-week sessions simultaneously in St. Andrew's Kirk and Woodsworth Halls.

Piano classes at Woodsworth Hall, 721 Courtney Street, had three long sessions, presided over by adjudicator Denis Murdoch of the Royal Academy of Music, London, England.

In St. Andrew's auditorium, Timothy Turner, British choral and vocal expert, heard teen-aged high, medium and low voices and a group of 26 little girls, 11 years and under.

PEAKES SEND-OFF

Junior vocal and piano classes were continuing this afternoon but tonight the festival will be given its official send-off with Lieutenant-Governor George R. Peakes officiating.

The evening session takes place in St. Andrew's auditorium with two fine choral classes and two senior piano classes making up the program. Starting at 8 sharp, the Musical Art Madrigal Singers will compete with the Senior Ladies' Ensemble of First United Church in an un-conducted small ensemble class.

OLD RIVALRY

Traditional rivalry of the Meistersingers versus the Action-Club Male Choir will conclude the program.

In between two uncontested piano classes will feature Karen Dickson playing the first movement of Mozart's Sonata in B-flat (K 315) and Philip Adamson in the Performer's Sonata Class, playing the first movement of a Beethoven work.

Tuesday there will be a switch of centres, with piano sessions being heard at St. Andrew's and vocal at Woodsworth Hall in the morning and again reversing in the afternoon.

Tuesday highlights include piano performers' Bach class in the morning, male and female oratorio solos in the afternoon, vocalists' concert group and adult choral classes in the evening.

ASK THE TIMES

Q. Which was the first American coin to bear the word "cent"? J. L.

A. The Washington Union cent of 1783.

Q. When was the first steam locomotive used in Canada? O. E.

A. The first steam locomotive went into service in 1836 on the Champlain and St. Lawrence Railway. Canada was the first country in the world to use a road diesel in 1929.

I LOVE CLUSTER LIGHTS BECAUSE But be sure to HURRY, HURRY, HURRY. It may already be too late.

And because of the HURRY, HURRY, HURRY, I haven't yet lined up a prize for the contest.

You can be sure, though, it will be something enlightening.

Just to show you how easy it is, here are few samples of how to enter the contest:

I LOVE CLUSTER LIGHTS because they remind me of grapes and grapes remind me of olives and olives remind me of martinis and I just LOVE martinis.

I LOVE CLUSTER LIGHTS because I love to take my girl for a walk downtown and its better if I can't see her ugly mug.

I LOVE CLUSTER LIGHTS because my mother always warned me against wine, women, song, and bright lights so I have always avoided bright lights.

I LOVE CLUSTER LIGHTS, because they are real ideal for taking a dim view of.

Second Look Due After 150 Calls

Ald. Geoffrey Edgelow today said he will ask for a second look at recommended replacement of the cluster lights in view of a flood of protests.

He said he would bring the subject up as chairman of public works committee when it meets Tuesday morning.

Replacement of the downtown clusters by modern mercury lights was recommended last week by a public works subcommittee headed by Ald. J. L. W. McLean.

150 CALLS

"I've had more than 150 calls over the weekend — at home, the office and everywhere I went — protesting removal of the clusters. Only three or four people supported the mercury lights," Ald. Edgelow said.

"In view of the reaction, I'll bring the matter up tomorrow to see if the committee thinks the recommendation should be changed at all."

Mayor Percy Scourrah, who voted against removal of the clusters, said he also was inundated with protests against the proposal over the weekend. "I answered the phone so many times Saturday my arm got tired and now there's a big pile of letters on my desk."

The mayor estimated he had been given more than 200 unsolicited protests against the measure and only two in favor of mercury lights.

"The cluster lights represent more than a sentiment—they are a symbol of a way of life that Victorians do not want abandoned," the mayor has decided.

The subject of an 84-hour manhunt in Greater Victoria after he ran away from the police charge office, Butterworth was spotted by a rookie policeman as he jaywalked at Yates and Douglas at 6:15 p.m.

He had spent the day hiding in a sawdust bin in the lower business-waterfront section of the city. He did not know exactly where.

DOUGLAS' STAND REVEALED HERE?

(Times Ottawa Bureau)

OTTAWA — Premier T. C. Douglas is expected to make a formal declaration of his intention to seek the leadership of the New Party when he speaks at a $10 a plate dinner meeting in the Esquimalt-Saanich constituency during the byelection campaign next month.

The dinner meeting is being arranged to be held in Victoria. During the meeting May 6 Premier Douglas will speak on behalf of New Party candidate Glen Hamilton in Esquimalt-Saanich riding. His announcement that he will be a candidate for the leadership of the New Party is expected to add a spark to the New Party campaign in that constituency.

FINAL

$200,000 Damage in Welland Blaze

WELLAND, Ont. (UPI) — A general alarm fire in the business district of this Ontario community early today caused an estimated $200,000 damage.

The fire destroyed a restaurant, two stores and a lodge hall.

Two Children Perish in Sask. Fire

SHAWANAVON, Sask. (CP) — Two small children were burned to death today when fire destroyed their home in this town 70 miles southwest of Swift Current. Dead are Rheal and Lillian Desautels, both of pre-school age.

Storm Lashes Central B.C. Region

QUESNEL (CP) — Communications were disrupted and power service was knocked out for several hours in the Cariboo and Prince George regions early today as a storm with winds up to 65 miles an hour struck the region. Severe thunder and lightning accompanied the high winds.

26 on Hunger Strike in 'Death Row'

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP) — Twenty-six of San Quentin Prison's death row inmates, three down from Sunday morning, were still on a hunger strike today.

Among them was 20-year-old Alexander Robillard, scheduled to die April 26 for killing a policeman, and believed by prison officials to be the reason for the strike which started Friday night.

Pacific Power
Grid Envisaged

A vast network of hydro power schemes stretching from Alaska to California is envisaged today by B.C.'s Lands and Forests Minister Ray Williston.

Addressing a Pacific Northwest Trade Association conference in Portland, Mr. Williston made a big pitch for export of Canadian power from both Columbia and Peace Rivers, as a vital part of his overall plan.

"There can be no logical reason for Canada to continue the artificial boundary barrier to the export of hydro energy," he said.

Mr. Williston's international grid would serve the Pacific Northwest and California.

The big need for more power will be after the mid-1970s, he said, but planning, engineering and construction on new power sources should begin as soon as possible.

An international export-interchange system between the various power sites would handle the "shunted" power.

It would come from the Co-

PORT ARTHUR (CP) — The icebreaker Alexander Henry worked today to free 11 ships trapped in an offshore icefield.

The vessels became trapped during the weekend in the approaches to the lakehead harbors when high winds pushed ice into the channels.

The Alexander Henry drew sharp criticism from ship captains Sunday after getting stuck herself in attempts to aid the others.

One ship's captain radioed to the $3,000,000 government icebreaker: "You are one hell of an icebreaker you are. Can't even get yourself out of the ice."

TOP COMIC STRIP

'Juliet Jones' in Today's Times

"The Heart of Juliet Jones," one of the most popular comic strips in North America, starts in the Times today.

Beautifully drawn by Stan Drake — who uses his wife as model for the central character — "Juliet Jones" tells a story of life, romance, and small-town political intrigues which has captivated millions of newspaper readers.

EICHMANN DENIES GUILT

'Destroyer's Trial'
Must Go On—Judges

(Times News Services)

JERUSALEM — Adolf Eichmann intoned the words "not guilty" 15 times today, denying all counts of Israel's indictment naming him as the master destroyer of 6,000,000 Jews.

Attorney-General Gideon Hausner, Eichmann's prosecutor, said the former Nazi officer "still believes he did what was right and proper in destroying millions."

"The not-guilty pleas marked the actual start of Eichmann's trial on the charges of complicity in the death of 6,000,000 European Jews during the Second World War.

A few minutes earlier the three-man court headed by Justice Moshe Landau overruled defence contentions that the court is prejudiced and incompetent and that the law under which Eichmann is charged is unjust.

Then Justice Landau ordered Eichmann to stand up and remove the headphones over which he listens to the translation into German of the Hebrew language of the court. Point by point, through the 15 counts of the indictment, Landau asked Eichmann: "Do you plead guilty or not guilty?"

Hausner began with a harsh, emotional outline of the case. He said Eichmann beat a Jewish child to death with his own hands for stealing peaches.

As he continued, tears came to the eyes of some members of the audience.

"When I stand before you, judges of Israel, to accuse Adolf Eichmann, I do not stand here alone.

"Here with me stand six million prosecutors. But, alas, they cannot rise and level a finger at the man in the prisoner's dock.

Saying that Eichmann truly felt no sense of guilt, Hausner told the court:

"We have reason to believe that if swastikas were raised again with shouts of 'sieh heil', if the hysterical voice of Hitler were to be heard again, if high-tension barbed wire were set up once more, Adolf Eichmann would rise ... and go back to his work of oppression and butchery."

The prosecutor outlined the rise of the Nazis to power in Germany in 1933, their use of anti-semitism as a weapon to advance their objectives in the world and finally the ghastly ordeal visited on the Jews.

Early in his statement, he Reports Indicate

25-Mile Advance

(Times News Services)

A strong force of rebel troops invaded Cuba today in an attempt to overthrow Premier Fidel Castro.

By parachute and landing craft, the assault force swarmed ashore only 90 miles from Havana and established a beachhead.

Reports indicated the invaders had advanced 25 miles inland. Castro proclaimed a state of national emergency. He took personal command of defence operations.

The invaders struck in the swampy area around Bahia de Cochinos (the bay of pigs) shortly after midnight.

Another force was reported to have landed in Oriente Province in eastern Cuba Saturday night.

5,000 MEN

Sources of the Cuban revolutionary council estimated 5,000 anti-Castro troops had gone into action within the last 48 hours.

President Jose Miró Cardona of the Cuban Revolutionary Council, with headquarters in the U.S., said the assault was the beginning of the battle "to liberate our homeland from the despotic rule of Fidel Castro and rid Cuba of international cruelty and oppression."

Miró Cardona's proclamation of revolt was broadcast to all Cubans by a revolutionary radio station on a Caribbean island.

The Castro regime immediately cut off communications to and from Cuba, and there was little information on the progress of the fighting.

HEAVY CASUALTIES

But one broadcast indicated the casualties were heavy. Castro himself underscored the gravity of the events in statements read over the country's biggest radio station after a 12-hour silence.

The bearded premier told the people of Cuba that invasion troops were attacking various points of national territory in the south of Las Villas province with the aid of aircraft and warships.

He called for action against "those who are surprised committing ... sabotage, shooting or assassination attempts" — indicating that an uprising within Cuba had accompanied the invasion.

"The glorious soldiers of the revolution," he said, "are continuing on Page 2

'We Won't Intervene' —Rusk

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today "there is no secret about the sympathy of the American people" for the forces seeking to overthrow Cuban premier Fidel Castro.

But he emphasized that "there is not and will not be any intervention" in Cuba by United States forces.

Rusk also said the United States is determined "to do all we possibly can to insure that Americans do not participate in these actions in Cuba."

Rusk said the landings were not mounted from U.S. soil. And he rejected Castro's charge that the United States was behind the invasion.

'NOT INDIFFERENT'

The secretary made it clear, however, that the United States is "not indifferent to intrusion into this hemisphere by the Communist conspiracy."

This conspiracy, he said, as recently as last December, "declared its intentions to destroy free institutions in all parts of the world."

He was referring to the manifesto issued in Moscow last December by representatives of Communist parties in more than 80 countries. The Communists called for increased action to spread their doctrine and control in Latin America, Africa and other areas.

Rusk would not predict what action the United States might take if Russia intervenes on Castro's side.

In a statement read at his news conference, Rusk said, in part:

"The American people are entitled to know whether we are intervening in Cuba or intend to do so in the future. The answer to that question is no. What happens in Cuba is for the Cuban people themselves to decide."

Lippmann Talks

'Launched
In Florida'
Roa Claims

UNITED NATIONS (CP) — Cuba charged today that the invasion of Cuba was launched from Florida and Guatemala with the backing of the United States. The United States replied with an immediate denial.

Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa told the UN political committee that the United States must assume the full responsibility for the dawn landings.

Chief U.S. delegate Adlai Stevenson asserted "these charges are totally false and I deny them categorically."

"The United States has not committed aggression against Cuba and no aggression has been launched from any part of the United States," he said.

He added, however, that the American people sympathize with "Cubans who do not stop being Cubans because they could not stand to live in Cuba" under the regime of Fidel Castro.

WILL FIGHT

Roa declared that Cuba will fight to the finish against the invaders.

The Cuban foreign minister concluded his emotional den-

'I'LL GET YOU OFF HOOK' CHINESE DEPORTEE TOLD

TORONTO (CP) — Richard Chan, under a deportation order, says he was approached last week by a man who said he could get him "off the hook" for $500.

Chan, 29-year-old partner in a plastics firm here, said that, on the advice of his lawyer, he paid $200 on account to John Wesley Withers, 67, described as a retired provincial civil servant.

Chan said Withers produced a Progressive Conservative Association membership card and letters purporting to concern cases he had handled in which deportation had been averted.

Chan said one letter was signed by Immigration Minister Fairclough and that Withers said his wife is a second cousin of the minister.

Withers said later he received the $200 but denied saying Mrs. Fairclough is related to his wife. He said he intended to try to make an appointment with the minister on Chan's behalf.

In Hamilton, Mrs. Fairclough said she has never known a man named John Withers.

Andrew Brewin, counsel for Chan, said he telephoned Dr. George Davidson, deputy immigration minister, and suggested an investigation.

Brewin, who had previously planned to see Mrs. Fairclough today to make an appeal for Chan on compassionate grounds, said he will ask again for an investigation when he sees her.

His direct appeal to the minister is being made because the courts have refused to revoke the deportation order against Chan.

The young businessman has admitted leaving Hong Kong with an illegally-acquired British passport. He came to Canada 23 months ago, ostensibly on a visit.

turned to look at Eichmann in the prisoner's dock and said:
"In this trial, we shall also encounter a new kind of killer, the kind that exercises his bloody craft behind a desk and only occasionally does the deed with his own hands."

"True, we know of only one incident in which Adolf Eichmann actually beat to death a Jewish boy, who had dared to steal fruit from a peach tree in the yard of his Budapest home."

Nothing showed in Eichmann's face.

"We shall find Eichmann describing himself as a fastidious person, a 'white collar worker,'" Hausner continued. "To him, the decree of extermination was just another order to be executed."

"Yet he was the one who planned, initiated, and organized, who instructed others to spill this ocean of blood and to use all the means of murder, theft, and torture."

This is the heart of Israel's case against Eichmann. Hausner said the Gestapo consciously worked to break the spirit of their victims and at the same time exploited those who retained the will to live to help carry out the murders.

The prosecutor said he had evidence of Gestapo orders saying that "hanging in concentration camps should be entrusted to other prisoners of the same nationality as those to be hanged and that the executioners should be given three cigarettes as wages."

On Eichmann's plea of innocence before the court, Hausner reported that he was as guilty as though Eichmann himself had "knotted the hangman's noose, lashed the victims into the gas chambers, shot in the back and pushed into the open pit every single one of the millions who were slaughtered."

'... Monster of Insane Brutality'

Hausner spoke of the origins of Nazi Germany, of Adolf Hitler, of the race supremacy theories and of the Nuremberg laws which finally embodied them into Nazi statutes and official policy.

"I doubt whether in this trial we on our part will succeed in laying bare the roots of the evil," the attorney-general said. "This task must remain the concern of historians, sociologists, authors and psychologists..."

But he asserted that Hitler "and his crimes were no accidental transient phenomenon."

Eichmann listened intently as Hausner recalled the mid-1930s in Germany. Once or twice he rocked back and forth gently in his chair.

The chain of events in Germany that Hausner traced has often been spelled out before. But seldom has it been delineated with such passion. Hausner's voice rose at times to the point of a shout almost.

Fierce words bristled through Hausner's statement "Jew hatred... just eyes on Jewish property... blood libel... unclean lands... the basest passions... a monster of insane brutality... one who could trample on human beings as though they were insects... satanic aspects."

He listed the steps in Eichmann's swift rise to importance in the Gestapo, from a faceless file clerk in an office to the moment when he was placed in charge of what the Nazis called "the final solution of the Jewish problem."

This meant mass extermination.

Hausner said "Eichmann was the official executor of the extermination program, with enormous authority in the German Reich..."

Eichmann Went Beyond His Orders

"In sum, he reached out to every corner to carry out the 'final solution,' using the methods he found most efficient... and always with one goal in mind—to get hold of the Jews and to send them to camps in the east."

"It need not surprise us, therefore, that on Jewish matters he gave orders to men of higher rank than his own."

Eichmann's highest rank in the Gestapo was lieutenant-colonel.

The prosecutor said a "confused and blinded world" had not been alarmed by the fate of the Jews, and did not realize that the persecution of the Jews was only the beginning of the onslaught.

He said Eichmann went into training as early as 1934 at Dachau, where he "learned to beat prisoners."

Eichmann's second sponsor Hausner said, was "the infamous Julius Streicher," a leader of the Nazi anti-Semitic movement who was executed by the Allies at the close of the war.

At the end of 1939, Eichmann was in Berlin, Hausner related. There he was given the order to deport the enormous Jewish population from areas of Poland and Czechoslovakia.

"In March, 1941, we meet Eichmann as head of the IV-4B department of the Gestapo. This was the office he continued to hold until the tragic end of European Jewry," Hausner said.

Eichmann was directly accused of being the official executor of the German extermination program in all Nazi occupied countries.

Hausner said he would prove to the court that Eichmann went far beyond his orders and carried out functions for which he had been given no orders at all.

In 1944, Hausner said Eichmann organized the export of Jews from Hungary "and made certain the journey would be a death march."

Hausner then turned to a detailed examination of the Nazi "final solution" of the Jewish problem, allegedly brought to fruition by Eichmann.

'HUMANE THING TO DO'

Children Boo, Cry As Raccoon Killed

Expediency won over compassion when a game officer shot a "misplaced" raccoon off the top of a high-tension power pole in Saanich Saturday night.

A crowd of neighborhood children were heart-broken at the same.

Saanich police said B.C. Electric reported the 'coon atop a pole at Richmond and Allenby at 5:40 p.m. and feared it might electrocute itself, at the same time short-circuiting high-voltage lines.

Trustees Tackle Two Difficult Problems Tonight

Greater Victoria School Board meets two thorny problems tonight as a result of the Chant royal commission. Trustees will have to discuss what changes should be made now to conform with new legislation implementing parts of the Chant report.

Main problem involves the mechanics of returning Grade 7 to the elementary level. Same issue also will have a direct effect on the second problem—timing of the proposed new school building by law, which originally was intended to go before ratepayers next month.

Because of the major shifts in the school system created by legislation this year, trustees probably will postpone a firm decision on both issues until all ramifications are clarified.

COLLEGE WHIZ

OTTAWA (UPI) — Robin Ritchie, a Queen's University halfback who set an intercollegiate football scoring record last season, has signed with the Grey Cup champion Ottawa Rough Riders.

No one wanted to risk further accident or possibly a severe clawing by climbing up and bringing the venturesome animal down by force.

Like cats, cornered 'coons can be vicious.

Insp. Robert Sinclair administered the fatal shot through the head after an hour of pondering the predicament with police and line crewmen.

MIGHT HAVE STARVED

"It was the only humane thing to do," said the inspector, adding that the animal might have starved if it managed to stay free of the hot wires.

Meanwhile, the children fully expected the 'coon to be rescued.

When the officer took aim with his .22 rifle, they booed. When the animal dropped to earth, lifeless, they cried. Some were still sobbing when they went home.

Wanderers Finally Win Own Tourney

Oak Bay Wanderers have finally won the seven-a-side rugby trophy they put up for the annual competition.

The sponsoring club beat James Bay Athletic Association 12-6 in the final game Saturday afternoon at Royal Roads on unconverted tries by Bob Hutchison, Maurice Preece, Bill Murray and Walter Tate.

In the junior division, Forey Angus led Shawnigan Lake Boys' School to a 14-3 win over Wanderers intermediates in the final game.

The former Edmonton star scored five tries and 15 converts for a 45-point afternoon.

Laos Cease-Fire 'Out' for Moment

(Times News Service)
LONDON — The Soviet Union rejected some details of the Western proposal for a cease-fire in Laos but kept the door open for further negotiations, a foreign office spokesman said today.

The spokesman declined to give the substance of the note, delivered Sunday in Moscow, but made clear that Britain and the Soviet Union won't be joining right away in calling for a cease-fire to suspend the fighting between the Western-backed Laotian government of Prince Boun Oum and the leftist Pathet Lao guerrillas.

The spokesman said further contacts with the Soviet government would be required.

and that meanwhile Britain is consulting with the United States, France and Communist wealth countries.

"Until we have completed discussions with our allies and come to some conclusions," the spokesman said, "we can give no indication as to our views on how the note is to be regarded."

Diplomatic sources in Moscow said that Russia's reply indicated a qualified acceptance of an immediate cease-fire appeal, but no agreement has yet been reached.

The sources said the Soviets still do not see eye-to-eye with the West on a timetable aimed at bringing a final Laotian settlement.

SIU to Break With U.S. Body

MONTREAL (CP) — The Canadian district of the Seafarers' International Union is formally separating itself from its parent body in the United States.

An SIU spokesman said Friday night a revised constitution setting up the district as "the Seafarers' International Union of Canada" is to be submitted shortly to the union's 20,000 members for ratification.

Little opposition is expected. Hal C. Banks, international vice-president and head of the Canadian district under the old constitution, will become president of the SIUC under the new.

The spokesman said the changes in the constitution have been worked on for several months, and ratification is not expected to take much longer than a month.

He said the move was decided entirely by the Canadian membership.

"It is in line with current trends to set up national unions," the spokesman said.

Headquarters of the Seafarers' International Union of North America (AFL-CIO) are in San Francisco.

"We were always independent in fact," said the spokesman, "but this will make it formal."

"We will keep an association with the SIU in America and our affiliation with the AFL-CIO," the union said.

The SIU was expelled from the Canadian Labor Congress in April, 1960, for raiding the membership of another CLEO affiliate, the National Association of Marine Engineers.

Other changes would lengthen the term of office of top officers—including Mr. Banks, now re-elected every two years—and bring the constitution of the SIU's licensed crew division into the general constitution.

The licensed division includes marine engineers.

The revised constitution has been discussed at meetings in eight Canadian ports.

It now must be published twice in the SIU's official organ, The Canadian Sailor, and voted on.

Ballots are to be mailed shortly to all members.

Kennedy 'Wicked' —Russell

LONDON (AP) — Philosopher Bertrand Russell Saturday called President Kennedy one of "the wickedest people who have ever lived."

The 88-year-old philosopher, a leading campaigner against nuclear weapons, coupled Prime Minister Macmillan with Kennedy as an architect of "mass massacre."

He told a meeting of young followers in Birmingham: "We used to call Hitler wicked for killing off the Jews, but Kennedy and Macmillan are much more wicked than Hitler."

"We cannot obey these murderers. They are wicked. They are abominable. They are the wickedest people who have ever lived in the history of man and it is our duty to do what we can against them."

Russell's tirade against Kennedy and Macmillan was an impromptu addition to his prepared speech. But he spoke in deadly earnest.

He said the concept of nuclear weapons could not be tolerated by anyone with a spark of humanity.

'Aggression' Protested By Russia

By U.P. International

The Soviet Union demanded today that "aggression against free Cuba" must be stopped immediately, and charged that plans for the invading forces which landed in Cuba this morning were made in the United States.

The first official Soviet reaction came in an editorial and new dispatches in today's edition of the government newspaper Izvestia in Moscow. "Halt the aggression against free Cuba," an Izvestia headline said.

"The Cuban people has risen to the defence of the fatherland; Cuba is not alone. All mankind is with her."

Communist China also declared that it is unable to contain its "extreme anger" over "United States aggression" against Cuba.

PROTEST LIFE'S 'LUXURIES'

Douks Strip, Burn 11 Cars

NELSON (CP) — A protest against the "luxuries of life" sparked a demonstration and stripping by two dozen members of the radical Sons of Freedom Doukhobor sect Sunday.

The demonstrators, caused an estimated $10,000 damage when they set 11 automobiles on fire at Krestova, 20 miles west of here.

The vehicles belonged to the demonstrators. RCMP said they are not considering charges, but they are conducting an investigation.

About two dozen women were reported to have stripped and chanted hymns around the blazing vehicles. (Every-one was clothed when the RCMP arrived.)

Police were greeted by Freedomites carrying placards in English and Russian, saying "Christ has come... down with seduction, luxury and war."

MOSCOW (Reuters) — Pravda disclosed Sunday a major purge in the central Asian republic of Tadzhikistan where both the Communist party leader and the premier have been expelled from the party for faking agriculture reports.

Detonator Explodes in Man's Face

VANCOUVER (CP) — An Army demolition expert who removed a dynamite bomb from an Anglican church in Wynndel at the weekend said Sunday he narrowly escaped injury when the detonator exploded in his face.

Sgt. Maj. Ralph Spencer said in an interview the time fuse on the bomb had expired and the slightest vibration would have set the 20-stick device off. The detonator was inches from his face when it went off. "It was one of the most ticklish jobs I have ever handled," he said.

Sgt. Spencer said it was fortunate the bomb was discovered before any services were held in the church.

Because of the delicate mechanism of the bomb, the slightest movement could have "blown 30 to 40 people out of the church."

The bomb was removed Saturday after a terrorist blast Friday blew out the wall of a grain elevator.

It was discovered by RCMP checking buildings following the elevator blast.
